Miss Gloria Neely and Bob Mordhorst United in Double Ring Rites Jan. 25

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mordhorst —Schoen Photo.

Miss Gloria Jean Neely of Nyssa and Bob Dean Mordhorst of New Plymouth, Ida., were united in marriage Jan. 25 in an evening ceremony at the Methodist church in Nyssa. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Neely, Sr. of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Mordhorst of New Plymouth.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Paul L. Ludlow, before members of the family and close friends. Candalaria and assorted spring flowers served as decorations for the church.

Mrs. Paul Ludlow furnished the bridal march.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white nylon brocade street-length dress with blue accessories. She wore a cap of pale blue satin and her corsage was an orchid.

Mrs. Marlene Mordhorst was matron of honor. She was attired in a pink knit suit and her corsage was of yellow carnations.

LeRoy Saxton of New Plymouth served as best man.

The bride's mother wore a green street-length dress with gold accessories and her corsage was of white carnations. Mrs. Mordhorst chose a navy blue suit with white accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

The couple was honored with a reception in the church parlor following the ceremony. The three-tier cake was trimmed in white and blue and was topped with a miniature bride and groom standing between two silver bells among lilies of the valley.

Guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Ludlow, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mordhorst and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mordhorst and family, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Neely, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Neely, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Neely, Jr., Mrs. Jack Mordhorst and LeRoy Saxton.

The bride was a junior at Nyssa high school. The bridegroom is a 1954 graduate of New Plymouth and is presently employed in Emmett.

For her traveling ensemble the bride chose a rose-colored knit suit.

After a brief honeymoon the newlyweds are making their home in Emmett.
