FORD TRUCKS cost less

LESS TO OWN . . . LESS TO RUN . . . LAST LONGER, TOO!

They give you so much more, too. In loadspace, for example, the Styleside pickup has 23% more capacity than any other half-ton pickup. (You pay nothing extra for this modern, extra-wide body.) In power—Ford offers the only light-duty trucks with Short Stroke power in the Six as well as the V-8! And Ford's new carburetor advances recently incorporated in the Six engine are designed to give you maximum gas mileage. In ride—Ford rides smoothest of any pickup—Impact-O-Graph tests prove it! And that's only the beginning. See for yourself.

"Frankly, we use a lot of fuel," reports Mrs. Rudy Liniger, 1303 E. Lynn, Seattle. "But then we're heating a three-level, 14-room house. We're convinced that Standard Heating Oils give us more for our money than any other type fuel or we'd certainly heat some other way. We like Housewarmer service, too—they seem to take a personal interest in our heating problems."
