LDS Conference Draws 1200 Here Saturday, Sunday

More than 1200 persons from Nyssa, Ontario, Vale, Parma and Owyhee wards of the Nyssa stake of the LDS church attended a two-day quarterly conference of the stake in Nyssa last Friday and Saturday.

New stake mission president is L. L. Jacobs of Ontario, who succeeds William J. Beus, former mission president, who has moved from Nyssa to Moses Lake, Wash.

Dr. L. W. Stoffers, Ontario, was selected by Jacobs as his first counselor and J. E. Brower, Nyssa, was sustained by the conference as high counselorman. Frederick Troast, Parma, and Henry Hasler, Vale, were sustained as presidents of the 389th quorum of Seventies.

Presiding officer of the conference was Elder Bruce R. McConkie, Salt Lake City, a member of the first council of Seventies of the LDS church.

"Why We Are Here" was the subject of Elder McConkie's address at the Sunday morning general session where he emphasized that each human being is tested to determine his or her status in eternity. Speaking at a Mutual Improvement association meeting Sunday afternoon, the speaker discussed tithing based on remarks of Malachi.

Elder McConkie spoke at a Sunday evening MIA session on "Being in Tune with the Spirit," pointing out that a person can know if he is in tune with his spirit, just as a musician knows if he is in tune with his instrument.

Stake President Arvel Child, Nyssa, conducted the general sessions Sunday and Mrs. Earl Winegar, Ontario, was in charge of the MIA program.

Special music was presented by the combined choirs of the two Nyssa wards under the direction of Mrs. Elbert Brown, Nyssa.

Potluck Dinner Guest Lecturer Sunday, March 9

The Rev. and Mrs. Donald Bitzberger, missionaries from Japan who are making a tour of the United States, were special guests Sunday evening at the Episcopal church at a potluck dinner.

Following the evening prayer services, the Rev. Bitzberger gave a lecture on conditions in Japan. From here they will continue their tour throughout the states.
