NYSSA Player Of the Week . . .

JIM McWILLIAMS
Third Baseman

Jim, a senior this year, lettered in baseball as a sophomore and a junior. What's more, he was captain of the Bulldog nine when he was a sophomore.

He's one of the Bulldogs' best "all around" players and a third baseman "deluxe." He has been hitting .333 so far this season and led Nyssa's batting last year with a .323 season's average. He singled in Nyssa's first run Friday against Adrian and has marked up at least one hit in each game this season.

Besides hitting, Jim has an excellent arm and fires a throw from third to first almost like a rifle shot. The Bulldogs will be counting on him for an outstanding performance this year . . .

Chamber Reviews Plans for Town Baseball Team

The Eastern Oregon college a cappella choir will perform at the Nyssa high cafeteria April 8 at 2:45 p.m., according to Principal Jack Jenkins. The 65-voice ensemble will present selections to students and interested public.

Mr. and Mrs. James Malloy were hosts at Sunday dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Suiter of Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gahan.

Last year $500 were raised to support the team and the year before $1200 were contributed, but gate receipts were exceptional, good both years. In 1957 $2300 were expended and contributions and gate receipts were sufficient to defray all costs.

Other reports were given by Tom Jones who stated that solicitation of funds for Owyhee Lake resort is underway; Paul Penrod announced a total of $300 have been contributed in the business district for the Red Cross and Jake Fischer and Ted Morgan reported various phases of an Industrial Development clinic in Boise last Thursday.

Members were reminded by President Wilton Jackson of the legislative highway interim committee meeting in Ontario next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. S. W. Smiley returned Tuesday afternoon from a two weeks' visit with her sisters, Mrs. C. S. Moorehead at Manzanola, Colo., and Mrs. R. L. Phillips of Pueblo.
