Bulldog Nine Trounces Emmett 7-1 On Nyssa's Baseball Diamond In Excellent Display of Teamwork

Ten Nyssa Bulldogs gave an outstanding team performance last Tuesday afternoon and as a result downed Emmett 7-1 on Nyssa's baseball diamond.

In a game that was devoid of individual Nyssa "stars" but an outstanding example of teamwork, the Bulldogs started off with five runs in the bottom half of the first inning.

Local Man to Pitch For Billings Team In Pioneer League

Word was received in Nyssa last week that Stan Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thompson of Nyssa, will be pitching with the Billings, Mont., baseball team of the Pioneer league this year.

He signed a contract with the Billings squad last fall and is on his way to Billings after being in spring training with them in Albany, Ga.

Thompson, who is 20 years old, pitched for Daytona Beach last year. He has been in three training camps since Feb. 10 this year, reporting to the St. Louis Cardinals' early camp at St. Petersburg, Fla., and then going to Daytona Beach's camp before reporting to the Billings club.

Nyssa Bulldogs Take Tuesday Game

The Bulldogs edged by Parma 5 to 4 in a 10-inning contest in Nyssa Tuesday afternoon. John Messick pitched the entire game for Nyssa and then scored the winning run after slamming a triple in the 10th inning.

Messick struck out 14 Parma batters and walked only four. He allowed Parma only five hits. The visitors made three errors. Nyssa scored their five runs on nine hits and committed only one error.

Catcher Clark Jaques hammered out four of Nyssa's nine hits, marking up three singles and a triple from four times at bat. Gerald Talbot scored Messick in the 10th to wind up the game.

In the sixth inning Roberts connected for a long triple to left field and then scored on a single by Gerald Talbot. Talbot then stole second and scored on an Emmett error.

Myrick Ends Game Jerry Myrick put an end to the game in the top half of the seventh when, with two men out, he stopped a long, hard line drive with a one-handed, diving catch to retire the side.

The Bulldogs scored their 7 runs on five hits and committed three errors while Emmett managed only one run from four hits while making two errors.

Except for Schiller's homer, Bill Brooks did all of Emmett's hitting with two doubles and a single.

Settles pitched the first six innings for the Bulldogs and John Messick relieved him in the seventh. Jaques caught the entire game for Nyssa. Jerry McCoy was the Emmett pitcher that was pounded out in the first inning.

He was relieved by Ralph Donaldson who went the rest of the game.
