

Home Extension Hosts Festival In Local Church

Over 350 home extension women throughout Malheur county registered Wednesday morning, April 30, at the LDS stake house in Nyssa for a full day of 10th annual Homemaker's Festival activities.

A no-host luncheon was served the guests by the Nyssa LDS Second ward. Special entertainment was furnished during the meal. Each guest received 10 Boat Days' tickets compliments of the Nyssa Chamber of Commerce and an orchid from Ideal Gas and Appliance company.

A style revue was conducted at 1:30 with members of many units participating.

Local High School Senior Top Student

are expected to be announced in about a month.

Sallee was one of only 10 Oregon students, and over 1,000 high school seniors from all states, to be awarded a Merit Scholarship this year. He won his CIT scholarship in direct competition with 256,000 other students from nearly 14,000 high schools throughout the country. Each Merit Scholarship, a four-year award, is awarded to about one high school senior in every 1,500.

According to high school principal Jack Jenkins, Sallee also placed third this week in the Stanford - Sylvania competitive examination in Mathematics and won the rights of alternate for one of the two Stanford scholarships being awarded. Some 836 high school seniors entered this competition.

Miss Yoneyama Awarded Oregon HEA Scholarship

May Yoneyama, senior student at Nyssa high school is recipient of the 1958 Oregon Home Economics scholarship, the first time the honor has been bestowed upon a Nyssa student. Announcement of the scholarship winner was made Saturday at the Oregon Home Economics Association convention.

Miss Yoneyama, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Yoneyama, was chosen from among applicants throughout the state. Mrs. Charles Steffens, homemaking advisor at Nyssa high school stated, "She is active in the local FHA chapter and homemaking activities. After graduation, she plans to study homemaking education at OSC, Corvallis."

THANK YOU CARD

I wish to thank my friends and neighbors for their kindnesses and sympathy extended me during the illness and death of my wife, Julia.—O. J. Jumper.

NYSSA Player Of the Week . . .

JERRY MYRICK
Shortstop

Jerry, a junior, has only been out for Bulldog baseball about three weeks, and he hasn't lettered in baseball before. But in this short length of time he has helped the squad with his outstanding fielding.

Jerry has displayed excellent defensive ability with this year's team. If he letters in baseball this season, and it certainly appears that he will, it will be the third sport in which he receives a letter this year. He has already earned his letters in football and basketball.

The Bulldogs are benefiting from Jerry's all-around versatility . . .
