It's May; The Kids Are Busy

Last week's Gate City Journal resembled a teen-agers' newspaper for which we are exulting and not apologizing. May is definitely a month for the younger generation, what with school activities reaching their climax and other affairs of education being balanced out for the end of the term. In addition to routine affairs and many individual accomplishments, Nyssa—and we mean the entire community—was honored by having Tom Sallee named as one of Oregon's and the nation's top students. Those acquainted with Tom can vouch for the fact that he is not the proverbial "intellectual bookworm," but a regular guy. Many Nyssa business firms, including The Journal, can also vouch for the fact that no task is too menial nor too hand-soiling for Tom to tackle with all the vigor he would exert on a mathematical problem that would leave most of us in a daze. One of the many pleasures found in weekly newspaper publishing, and absent from the daily field, is being able to accentuate the positive and not having to expand street sales by headlining "Juvenile Delinquency." While a rural area's percentage of good, mediocre and "bad" youngsters are little different from those in a metropolitan area, the rural acceptance of those three degrees of youth are different, and we believe such acceptance will play some small part in the lives of those who are the citizens of tomorrow.

Adrian Community Church Notes

Thursday, May 8—Mary and Martha society will meet in the home of Mrs. Harvey Bennett, with Mrs. John Auker as assistant hostess. Items are needed for handwork in the daily Vacation Bible school. If you have any of the items listed please leave them at the parsonage—shoe boxes, small boxes the size of match boxes, colored pictures of fruit, vegetables and flowers, blue colored clothes cleaner bags. One hundred cookies per day during Vacation Bible school will be needed. Anyone donating cookies should contact any member of the Mariner's club. Church board meeting Thursday night, May 8, in the Wesley Piercy home.

Job's Daughters Present Program At Eastern Star

Members of the Job's Daughters presented a program honoring Mother's day at the Monday evening meeting of the Eastern Star chapter. Special selections included two vocal duets by Helen Winter and Dianne Maulding, accompanied by Nancy Stringer and musical readings by Gretchen Rinehart, Mary Lou Lancaster and Sandra Lewis with Mrs. Wilson Winter accompanist. Mrs. Cieta Wernick Boetger was accepted as a new member and will be initiated at the next meeting scheduled for May 19. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Herb Fisher and Mrs. Gohn Olsen.

Pentecostal Church Hosts Revival Meet

Rev. L. H. Bacheller

The Rev. Lewis H. Bacheller began a revival campaign at the Pentecostal Church, No. 7th and Emison streets last Sunday night and will continue for 2 weeks. Rev. Bacheller has been preaching for over 50 years. He is a lecturer, artist, musical composer and in each service at night sings a new song written during the service from a title given him by someone in the audience and also draws a beautiful pastel drawing and gives it to the one bringing the most people to the service that night. The Rev. Bacheller has also been a high school music teacher in California and Hawaii while doing missionary work there and taught the first school band ever organized on the Island of Hawaii. You will greatly enjoy every service. He opened his campaign Sunday night speaking on "The Healing of the Blind Man." These meetings are different than the regular run of revivals and you will not want to miss any of them after you come the first time according to the Rev. Lyle Haines, pastor who extends a hearty welcome to all in Nyssa and surrounding communities.

CARD OF THANKS

"O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exult; His name to gether. I sought the Lord, and He heard me, and delivered me from all my fears."—Psalms 34:4-5. I know many of you joined me in prayer during my recent illness and want to join me in this song of praise. The many cards and lovely flowers received were a source of much blessing and greatly appreciated. Church groups, neighbors and friends were most helpful in this time of need. For these many acts of thoughtfulness and kindness, I thank you heartily, and in the words of Billy Graham, "May the Lord Bless You Real Good"

David Hill Wins 4-H Scholarship

At the regular meeting of the Oregon Trail grange Thursday evening it was announced that Mrs. Lester Cleaver won first place in the national sewing contest which was sponsored by this grange. Members voted to donate $5 to the Spence memorial scholarship fund. Among other announcements, it was revealed that David Hill was to receive the 4-H scholarship donated by the grange and that the state grange meeting was scheduled for June at Eugene. The formation of a soil conservation district was discussed but will be investigated before any action is taken by the grange. Lowering the price of wheat and the closing of the Carnation plant at Ontario also were discussed. Mrs. Gerrit Stam presented an article on flowers and gave a reading on mothers. Plans include studying the primary ballot during the next regular meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gressley and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fox were hosts for refreshments.

Nyssa Art Classes Have Exhibit Show

The industrial art classes of Nyssa high school are displaying their year's work at Eder Hardware in Nyssa. The exhibits were arranged Tuesday evening and will remain there until Monday of next week. Classes participating, according to W. A. Barton, instructor, are freshmen, sophomore, junior and seniors. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Amick and Doug of Twin Falls were Saturday morning callers at the Gene Grasty home. Mrs. Grasty and sons accompanied the Amicks to Payette to attend the May Festival. Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Neely, Sr., were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Messersmith in Weiser.
