To the Gate City Journal:

It is not the purpose of the writer to go into party politics but to analyze the minds of many voters. Their utter voidness of the practical need of sound business in our public affairs and their unfair dealings with their officials who try to conduct the public business solely on an honest basis. It is this unfairness and short sightedness which retards many of our best endowed and public spirited citizens from taking part in public affairs.

This writer has a long voting career—68 years. It has been one of varied voting with the object of public service in view.

The defeat of Emil Stunz is a glaring example of such short sightedness without regard to public service. Malheur County is and has been for countless years in a peculiar position as in fact, all Eastern Oregon, is being outvoted on its needs. To Mr. Stunz went the foresight and stamina to meet that much-needed work.

The writer whose policies have always been not to interfere with our public officials, took several occasions to compliment Mr. Stunz while in office. It is to be regretted that Mr. Stunz was made a victim of a very corrupting and degrading policy of public power greed.

Fifty years of life and service have taught the writer of the needs of the county which cannot be known to a comparatively new comer. My regards to Mr. Stunz for what he has done.

Respectfully, C. M. Beaumont
