The Rev. Henry Moore, performed the afternoon candlelight ceremony in the presence of 65 guests. Baskets of pink and white garden flowers decorated the church for the occasion.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white brocade faille ballerina gown, featuring cap sleeves and a soft neckline. Her off-shoulder veil was held in place by a bandeau of tiny bouquet was of American Beauty seed pearls and mock daisies. Her roses and bridal wreath, fashioned by her mother.

Mrs. Jimmy Carroll, twin sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was attired in a pale blue dress identical to that of the bride. Her bouquet was also of roses and bridal wreath.

Mrs. Verl Bishop of Parma sang, "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Miss Shirley Skinner. Candelights were the Misses Ellen Saito and Nancy Blades, cousin of the bride. Miss Debra Riggs was flower girl.

Leonard Krause, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Raymond Riggs and Gary Blades, cousins of the bride. Miss Linda Costley was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Curtis Eason and Mrs. Gary Smith received gifts.

The couple was honored with a reception in the basement of the church immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Clyde Riggs, Parma, cut and served the four-tier, white wedding cake, decorated with pink roses and silver leaves topped with a miniature bride and groom under an archway of bells and flowers. She was assisted by Mrs. Delbert Douglas of Nampa, aunts of the bride.

Mrs. Edward Edmond of Brooks, Ore., and Mrs. Allen Edmond of Stanfield, Ore., aunts of the bridegroom, poured. Others assisting with the reception were Mrs. Burton Blades of Nampa, Mrs. Edythe Prosser of Parma and Mrs. Delno Brock of Harper.

After a week's honeymoon trip the couple will be making their home on North Third street, one half mile from Nyssa.

The bridegroom is a 1957 graduate of Nyssa high school and is employed on the Saito farms. The new Mrs. Krause is a 1958
