

Former Sunset Valley Resident Weds Wayne Wayburn Hunt in Lawton Rites

Now residing at 1510 1/2 South 9th, Lawton, Okla., are newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wayburn Hunt, whose wedding was solemnized at the Holy City chapel at the Easter Pageant site in the Wichita Mountains near Lawton.

The Rev. E. Hughlin Phillips, pastor of the Revival Center, 14th and Summit, Lawton, officiated at the double ring ceremony at 8 p.m. Friday, June 6.

The bride, who is the former Miss Sharon Kaye Query is the daughter of Mrs. Clarence L. Dodson, formerly of Sunset Valley, now at 1608 North 26th street, Lawton, and L. Boyd Query, Bremerton, Wash. Her bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Willard E. Bartlett, Largo, Florida and the late Robert C. Hunt.

A white bridal arch covered with fern and gladioli and flanked by pedestal arrangements of white gladioli and candelabra banked with jade foliage provided a floral setting for the nuptial exchange. A white aisle cloth and prie-dieu completed chapel decorations.

Wedding music was provided by Miss Virginia Rice, pianist, who played appropriate nuptial selections, and also accompanied Mrs. E. H. Phillips, vocalist, who sang "I Love You Truly."

Miss Connie Lindsey served as candlelighter. She was attired in a floor-length gown of lavender taffeta with a net overskirt and wore a wristlet corsage of white carnations.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Alan Gibbons, while Mmes. Floyd Bone and Bill Buzbee were bridesmaids. The attendants were attired in gowns styled similarly to that worn by the candlelighter, with Mrs. Gibbons wearing blue; Mrs. Bone, yellow; and Mrs. Buzbee, a melon shade.

Mrs. Gibbons carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations, while the colonial bouquets of Mmes. Bone and Buzbee were of white carnations.

Attired in a white nylon dress trimmed in lace and wearing a pink wristlet corsage, Diane Lambourne was flower girl.

Dennis Dodson, a brother of the bride, served as ring bearer.

Pfc. Alan Gibbons, Fort Sill, was best man, and ushers were Larry Phillips, Ferris Lindsey, Floyd Bone and Bill Buzbee.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, Clarence L. Dodson, the bride was attired in a traditional wedding gown of white satin fashioned with a pearl-embroidered sweetheart neckline, long sleeves coming to points over the wrists and a chapel train.

Her finger-tip length veil fell from a pearl crown and she carried white roses surrounded by white carnations atop a white Bible. The bride's only jewelry was a single strand of choker pearls.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dodson chose a gray and pink taffeta dress with white and pink accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Della Ditty, was attired in a navy blue dress and she also wore a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's parents in the chapel parlor.

An ecru cloth over pink covered the bridal table, which was centered with an arrangement of verbena and sage flanked by small candelabra. Arrangements
