St. Hubert's Catholic church in Nyssa was the scene of the Aug. 9 wedding of Miss Wilma Smit and George Orin Roth of Nyssa. The Rev. Father John Baumgartner officiated at the afternoon double ring rites in the presence of 150 guests.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Sam J. Smit of route 2, Nyssa, and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Roth of 612 North 2nd St. in Nyssa.

Baskets and vases of white and lavender gladioli decorated the church for the occasion.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a waltz length gown featuring princess style with bodice of lace over taffeta, taffeta skirt, scalloped neckline and long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held by a hat of white tulle. White gladioli with satin streamers formed her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Albert Nichols of Ontario, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was attired in a street-length gown of yellow taffeta in princess style. Bridesmaids were the Misses Ada Roth, sister of the bridegroom, and Nellie Smit, the bride's sister. They wore spice taffeta princess style dresses patterned identically to the matron's of honor. Their corsages were of white gladioli.

All gowns including her own and the attendants and her veil were made by the bride.

Larry Hansen of Rigby, Ida., served as best man and ushers were Tommy Roth, brother of the bridegroom, and Casey Smit, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Julian Ceniga of Vale sang "Ave Maria," accompanied by Mrs. Harry McGinley.

For the occasion, the bride's mother chose a beige street-length dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a navy afternoon dress. Their corsages were of white gladioli.

The couple was honored with a reception held at the Masonic hall following the nuptial rites. Mrs. John Elfering and Mrs. Julian Ceniga of Vale presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Ronald Pierce of Ontario served the cake. The gifts were in charge of the Misses Diane Zobel, Janet Olson, Kay Adams and Judy Watts, and Miss Barbara Smit presided over the guest book.

The refreshment table was centered with a four-tier wedding cake adorned in pink and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. The cake was made and decorated by the bride's mother.

The new Mrs. Roth is a 1958 graduate of Nyssa high school and he attended Madison high school at Rigby. The bridegroom is employed at the J. C. Watson Co.

They are making their home at 612 North 2nd St. in Nyssa.

Out-of-state guests present for the wedding and reception included Larry Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Juenke and Miss Lucille Hansen, all of Rigby, Ida., Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Booth of Parma, Miss Beverly Roggenkamp of Caldwell, Casey Smit of Nampa and Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Nichols of Parma.
