Sunset Valley— Raffington Fire Is Extinguished By Neighbor

By Lois Council
Phone 2439

A fire that could have caused serious damage to buildings on the W. T. Raffington place Monday night was extinguished by the quick action of a neighbor, Joe Stephen as he happened to be driving by and saw the flames, it was reported. Dr. Raffington had been burning trash nearby during the afternoon, and sparks from the supposedly extinguished fire, were whipped by the wind and ignited the granary. Had the fire not been quickly brought under control, several close buildings in addition to the granary would have been destroyed, the owner gratefully emphasized. Other neighbors soon arrived to assist with the fire.
