Apply NITROGEN This Fall

Use Phillips 66 AGRICULTURAL AMMONIA—contains 82% nitrogen!

Get nitrogen-plus by applying Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia to corn stalks and other crop residues this fall. That way, you'll store the 82% nitrogen in the soil, which will in turn break down crop residues—for extra plant food to help increase your profit per acre next year.

Save time and trouble, too, by applying Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia this fall—instead of next Spring when your work load is heaviest.

See us right away about fall-applying Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia—for increased profit per acre and lower unit production costs next year.
