Hunters Gain Smashed Auto, No Big Game

An elk hunting trip for four Nyssa men and one Ontario last week turned into a battle with the elements, no game and one extensively damaged automobile. The hunting party composed of Houston Wilson, Dr. John Olsen, Warren Farmer and W. O. Hipp of Nyssa and Turner Bond of Ontario went into the mountains near Dayton, Ore. where they were plagued with stormy weather. During one night of the eight-day trip, a big tree uprooted and fell across the top lengthwise, of Bond's car, smashing in the top and breaking out the glass in front and back.

The hunters massed forces and with the aid of blocks, jacks and strong backs, forced the top up sufficiently to enable the driver to get in and bring the car home on its own power.

and children were dinner guests Wednesday at the Clyde Bohannon home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McConnell of Nyssa visited Sunday afternoon at the Russell Gressley home.
