Loretta Stephens And Billy I. Day Married Saturday

Miss Loretta Stephens of Nyssa became the bride of Billy I. Day, Navy seaman, in Saturday evening rites solemnized in the home of Bishop Chas. Mann in Apple Valley. Bishop Mann officiated at the single ring ceremony attended by the immediate families.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stephens of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Day of Adrian.

The bridal couple exchanged vows while standing between a decorated Christmas tree and the fireplace.

The bride was attired in a ballerina length gown of blue taffeta with blue over-lace and a small hat covered with pearl sequins, and silver slippers. Her sapphire necklace was a gift from the bridegroom. Her bridal bouquet was pink and white carnations in white net with blue streamers. Miss Claudette Day, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore an orchid gown of taffeta and overnet and a white carnation corsage.

Serving as best man was Glenn Stephens, brother of the bride.

Approximately 35 guests attended a reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stephens following the wedding ceremony. The three-tier wedding cake was baked and decorated by Claudette Day. The gifts were opened by the new Mrs. Day, assisted by Mrs. James Ritchie and Miss Carol Cooper.

Mrs. Day is a sophomore student at Nyssa high school. Her bridegroom is a seaman with the U. S. Navy and will be stationed in Pearl Harbor.
