Woman Deep Sea Diver to Speak At Knife & Fork

Mrs. Lucie Palmer

The Malheur county Knife and Fork club has scheduled Lucie Palmer, who has the hazardous vocation of deep sea diving and underwater painting, as guest speaker at their next meeting, Saturday, at the East Side cafe in Ontario.

Mrs. Palmer, whose husband Vincent Palmer is president of S-O-S Palmer, Inc., ship-raising specialists, was not content with living above ground while her husband was exploring the bottoms of the seas. She decided to

Faulty Imprint On Bank Checks Distributed Here

There might be some "bad checks" floating around the Nyssa area, but no criminal intent on the part of the check writers is evident.

An error was reportedly made by a lithographing firm from which the First National Bank of Oregon purchases its checks.

It was reported that a new shipment of counter checks had been received at the Nyssa branch of the statewide banking firm and that a few sheets of checks designating the Portland branch had been distributed to a few Nyssa branch customers. Efforts were being made last Saturday to gather up all the new supply of checks for closer inspection.

Ironically enough, one of the local bank's employees was reported to inadvertently filled out one of the faulty checks on his personal account for payment to a local store and failed to notice the Portland branch imprint.

The John Bixby family of Parma visited Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Leon Roberts and family.

go along.

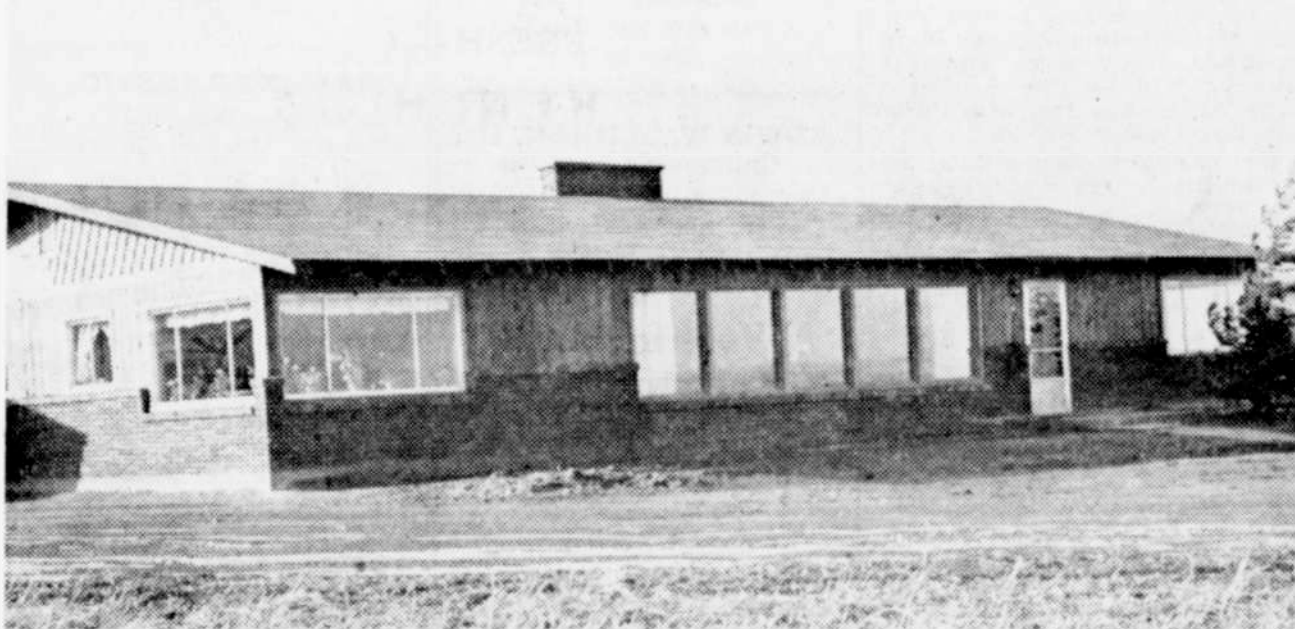

To occupy her time, she began taking color pictures of the seas fish life and its flora. In her talk Saturday evening she will take her listeners along the bottom of the seas on a trip, with the help of her unusual underwater color films.
