A letter was received from G.
C. Fretwell of Portland commending Miss Frances Foster of as a missionary in Japan. Mr.

aside from being a successful Christian missionary and establishing a missionary chapel center in a mountain town of over 6,000 in a large rural area with no christian church, is certainly an ambassador of good will from our nation to that of Japan as she has for over two years been carrying the message of comfort, healing and cheer to the helpless in hospitals, even to those in the leprosy wards."

What's Your Hurry?

Why rush to your destination, merely to check into a hotel — perhaps at a disagreeable hour — and incur additional and unnecessary hotel bills? How much more pleasant to enjoy the luxury of a leisurely trip by train!

In a Union Pacific Domeliner you can take time to relax. To take a break from tension, rush and routine. To enjoy traditionally fine food, served graciously amid the beautiful surroundings of the famous Diner. To catch up on your rest in the very latest type Pullmans. Or in the peace and quiet of a private room you can work, or read, or rest undisturbed.

When you feel like stretching your legs, you can visit the Lounge, where you'll find beverages, magazines, writing desk, music and congenial companions. Or visit the Dome cars, where you really see scenery — at ground level. What's the sense of rushing there, when it's so much fun getting there!

Many other advantages when you travel by train. Your nearby Union Pacific Railroad ticket agent will gladly tell you about them.

It's different with freight. Speed's important. You can be sure your freight, carton or carload, gets fast, careful handling and on-time delivery when you specify Union Pacific.
