Owyhee Community Church Events

"Through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins; and by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses."—Acts 13:38-39.

The We-Two group met last Friday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dail.

Vacation Bible school will begin Monday, May 25, and continue through June 5. Theme for the two-week school is "Living for Jesus in the Space Age." All children in the community are welcome to attend.

There will be no midweek service this week because of graduation exercises at the Adrian school.

Saturday, May 23 — Monthly youth rally at the Malheur Bible Baptist church.

The pastor will speak on the subject "Church With an Open Door!" on Sunday, May 24.

Nazarene Church Names Mrs. Wild Mother of Year

Mrs. Ed Wild was crowned Mother of the Year on Mothers' day in the Nazarene church Sunday school. Mrs. June Parrish, program director, told of Mrs. Wild's faithful work for over 40 years, much of that time being spent as a Sunday school teacher. She was also praised for the wonderful family she and Mr. Wild had reared, and she was presented with a gift.

Sunday, George M. Wilson was presented as the one who traveled by covered wagon from Curtis, Neb. His daughter-in-law, Mrs. Don Wilson, related the story of his travel West. She told of his being 13 years of age when they left their father's homestead in May, 1900. A month was spent in Wyoming haying for the governor of Colorado and many other interesting incidents were related of their experiences as the four wagons traveled from 10 to 20 miles a day, depending upon the water supply. They arrived at their destination, Payette, Ida., Sept. 14.

Announcement was also made Sunday for the vacation Bible school to be held June 1 to 12 under the direction of Mrs. Dwight Seward.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kerby and daughter, Kim of Miami, Florida are visiting his brother, Dr. and Mrs. K. E. Kerby and Steve in Nyssa.

Adult Fellowship Schedules Meeting

The Young Adult fellowship of the Methodist church will hold their second meeting Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the church parlor. All young adults of the community are invited to attend. Mrs. Bill Fangen and Mrs. Ken Toomb, chairmen of the newly organized fellowship, announced. Topic for discussion will be marriage problems. Guest speakers and common problems of interest will be featured at the monthly meetings, the chairmen reported.

Mormons to Hear Church Leaders During Conference

Elder George Q. Morris, a member of the Council of Twelve Apostles, and Elder Walter Stover of the General Welfare committee will address the quarterly conference of the Nyssa Stake to be held in the Ontario chapel May 23-24.

Church members will assemble from surrounding congregations or wards to receive counsel in spiritual and temporal affairs, and to hear reports.

The conferences are held quarterly in each of the 275 geographical units called stakes.
