

Historical Notes Highlight Theme For Nyssa Unit

The Nyssa Home Extension unit met May 14 at the home of Mrs. Dwight Mason in Apple Valley with 20 women in attendance. This was the last meeting of the unit until the fall months.

Roll call was answered by "Why We Came to Oregon." Mrs. Gene Grasty also gave an interesting talk on her Great-Grandfather Kennedy's experiences in coming to Oregon in the early days. Mrs. Carl Roth gave a report on the Centennial trip to Jordan Valley taken by representatives of extension units of the county as a group. Historical places of interest visited included Danner, Indian burial grounds, Chalk cliffs near Rome and the volcanic crater. The group went by way of Succor creek.

Eastern Stars Elect Officers For New Year

New officers for the Golden Rule Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star were elected at the Monday evening meeting of the organization. Mrs. Gerald Mackey was named worthy matron; Paul Penrod, worthy patron; Mrs. Paul House, associate matron; William Schireman, associate patron; Mrs. Harold Brendle, conductress; Mrs. Paul Penrod, associate conductress; Mrs. William Schireman, secretary and Mrs. Harry Miner, treasurer.

Initiation was held with Mrs. Glen Marcum and Paul House becoming new members of the order. Memorial services were conducted and recognition held for those having birthdays during the first six months of the year. Miss Lois Bungum was honored with a farewell shower.

Out-of-town guests in attendance were Messrs. and Mrs. Robert Brown of Boise, Glenn Brown of Adrian and John Hendricks of Vale.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Cleta Boetger, Clarence Wernick and Emil Paulus.

The losing side of the proficiency race will treat the winners to a dinner at the Masonic hall Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mullins and Lynda spent the weekend at Shoshone, Ida., visiting their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Garold Ropp and family. Three-year-old Brad Ropp accompanied them back to Nyssa for a visit.
