Linda Lee Smith, Robert W. Bale United in Vale Lutheran Church

Miss Linda Lee Smith, daughter of Mrs. John Lawrence of Nyssa and Mr. Noel Smith of Boise, and Robert W. Bale, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Bale, route 2, Parma were united in marriage Sunday, June 7, at Grace Lutheran Church in Vale.

The Rev. John L. Briehl performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 80 invited guests.

The altar was adorned with baskets of blue majestic daisies and white candelabra.

Mrs. William LaBounty was soloist and was accompanied by Mrs. John Briehl.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor length princess gown of chantilly lace trimmed in white satin. Her elbow length veil was held by a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations and white stephanotis.

Miss Joan Bellon, maid of honor, wore a ballarina length gown of pink nylon and carried a nosegay of white carnations. Miss Elaine Smith attended her sister as bridesmaid and was attired in a blue nylon dress of ballarina length. She also carried a white carnation nosegay.

Dell Bale served his brother as best man. Also attending the bridegroom was Dale Collins of Parma. Ushers were Tim McGinnis and Gary Wilson.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lawrence chose an ivory afternoon dress with lilac accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a peach afternoon frock. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

Ladies of the Vale Lutheran church were hostesses to a reception immediately following the ceremony.

The three tier wedding cake was decorated with white bells and pink flowers and was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Miss Geraldine Winkler presided at the guest book. Receiving and placing the gifts were Miss Carol Cooper, Miss Louise Hanby, Mrs. Mance Smith, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Clyde Bohannon and Mrs. La Vern Cleaver.
