Methodist WSCS Hold June Meets

WSCS members of the Methodist church held their June meetings last Thursday. The two day circles recently regrouped but the night circle members remain the same.

Circle 1, with 11 members present and Mrs. Leslie Topliff as chairman, met with Mrs. Lloyd Tobler. Mrs. Topliff also led devotions and presided at the business meeting. The name of Ruth Green, missionary now serving in the Chinatown area in San Francisco, Calif., was selected as the circle name. Mrs. Paul Ludlow spoke on the goals of the society and ideas and inspirations gained from the recent officers' training day.

Circle 2 met at the church with Mrs. Kinsey Kevenen presiding. Due to the smallness of the group, a name was not selected. Mrs. Clifford Fox led devotions and gave the program on "Crusade Scholars." Mrs. Dale Osborne was hostess.

Celia Cowan circle met with Mrs. Herke Stam with Mrs. Dick Pounds as co-hostess. Mrs. Bill Wilson, chairman, conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Bill Barton led devotions and Mrs. Harold Kurtz had the program, "Youth of Leisure Time," the thought being that families should plan activities together. One of the things suggested was reading. Sixteen members were present.

School of missions will be in Caldwell July 20 to 25.
