

Adrian Presbyterian Church Scene Of Lois Day, Glenn Stephens Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn C. Stephens (Schoen Photo)

Mrs. Lois Claudette Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude I. Day of Adrian, Ore., and Glenn C. Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Clyde Stephens were united in marriage June 13, 1959, at an 8 o'clock evening ceremony in the Presbyterian church at Adrian.

The Rev. Henry Moore performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 100 invited guests. Bill Looney was soloist and was accompanied by Mrs. James Philfer.

The church was beautifully decorated with a red and white rose covered archway, large baskets of flowers and red tapers in candelabra. The tapers were lighted by the Misses Croletta Miller and Eileen Stradley, dressed in identical white lace dresses, white hats and gloves.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length chantilly lace gown over net and slipper satin. Her fingertip veil was held by a small cap of pearls and sequins. She carried a white taffeta Bible and wore a red rose corsage and streamers of rosebuds and orange blossoms.

Mrs. Bill Day, sister of the bridegroom and married to the bride's brother, was matron of honor and wore a white gown and red rose corsage.

Miss Garnet Ritchie and Miss Sandra Day were bridesmaids and were attired in red sheath dresses and wore white rose corsages.

Cari Cooper, niece of the groom, was flower girl. She wore a white dress matching that of the matron of honor.

Lester Odom served as best man and ushers were Ronald Day, brother of the bride, and Ronald Cooper, the groom's brother-in-law.

Mrs. Day chose a pink lace dress over taffeta for her daughter's wedding and the groom's mother wore a blue lace frock over taffeta. Both wore corsages of white roses.

A reception was held in the church basement immediately following the ceremony. A three-tier wedding cake was baked and decorated in red and white by Mrs. Ray Foote, aunt of the groom. Mrs. Foote served the cake, assisted by Mrs. Dave Highland. Mrs. James Ritchie presided at the punch table and was assisted by Mrs. Glenn Hoffman and Mrs. Glenn Cooper.

Mrs. Ronald Cooper, the groom's sister, was in charge of the guest book and caring for the gifts was Mrs. Lester Odom, assisted by the Misses Bonnie Lowtrip, Claudia Peterson, Janette Conant and Joan Barton.

The new Mrs. Stephens is a graduate of Adrian Union high school and the groom is a graduate of Mesa, Ariz., high school.

Out-of-state guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lester Odom of Oakland, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Cooper and daughter of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Foote of Nampa and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Highland of Echo.

For their wedding trip to Oakland, Calif., the bride wore a white nylon dress trimmed in red taffeta, with white accessories.

Mr. Stephens is employed at Oregon-Idaho Products in Ontario, Ore.
