NEWELL HEIGHTS—Several families gathered in the church Wednesday evening for the reception accorded the Rev. Wallace Jamison and his family from New Brunswick, N. J. Wallace was a student supply in the Adrian church 18 years ago when he was a student in Princeton Seminary. Since then he has served as a chaplain in the Navy, been a Bible history teacher at Westminster college in Pennsylvania, served as a minister in a church near Des Moines, Ia., and is now a Bible history professor in the New Brunswick Seminary. Other guests were a brother, Dr. Paul Jamison and family of Tanta, Egypt.

The Jamison families were guests in the M. L. Kurtz home Tuesday and Wednesday Dr. and Mrs. Bill Millen of Nampa and the Rev. and Mrs. Henry Moore of Adrian called Wednesday evening. Thursday evening the Dudley Kurtz family of Nyssa and the Bob Kurtz family came for a picnic supper on the patio. Friday night the Bill Kurtz family of Merrill joined the Jamison party for an overnight camp at Crater Lake.

Mrs. Jake Borge left Monday with the Rev. John Steiner of Ontario for Presbyterian church camp near Hailey, Ida., in the Sawtooth Mountains. Mrs. Borge will be one of the counselors and will also teach a class of handicraft.

Pete Hammon and Norman Price visited relatives and friends in Ogden, Utah over the Fourth of July.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Krieger and Steven attended a picnic at the Dudley Kurtz home Sunday afternoon when former friends gathered to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Dale Glenn of Pasco, Wash., house guests of the Kurtz family.

Dr. and Mrs. Merle Kurtz, Cheryl, Gail and Sally McMillan, of Portland came Thursday and visited in the Dudley Kurtz home in Nyssa and the M. L. and Bob Kurtz home in this area. Gary and Scott returned home with them after a three weeks visit and Cheryl and Sally remained to visit for a time.

Mrs. Ann Pratt and the Gene Pratt family drove to Silver City on the Fourth and enjoyed the day seeing the ghost town and remembering stories told to them by the husband of Mrs. Pratt when he freighted into Silver City some 85 years ago from Minidoka.

Pamela Peterson celebrated her 12th birthday Friday afternoon when friends were invited to a party in her honor. Gifts were received and her mother served refreshments to the guests.

Frank Pratt drove to McCall over the Fourth and was a guest in the Stewart Atkin home. Mrs. Atkin will be remembered as Grace Walters whose parents homesteaded the land now owned by Chas. Newbill and part of the C. B. Hill farm.

Sunday evening Gene Pratt, Mervin Peterson and Bob Wallace attended a Pioneer League baseball game in Boise between the

Ontario Family
To Host Mexican Exchange Student

It has been announced that the Jack Sather family of Ontario will be host to an International Farm Youth Exchange this summer. Herman Diaz of Pueblo, Mexico, will live with the Sather family from Aug. 25 to Sept. 14.

Diaz is 25 years old and has lived on a 300-acre farm for nine years. He has listed as his interests advanced agricultural methods and learning ways in which to apply these methods in his country. He also wants to gain a better understanding of Americans and to learn English well.

While living with the Sathers, Hermilio will be treated like another member of the family, working and living in the same manner as his host family. He will probably be interested in visiting some farm organizations, 4-H club events and participating in some of the county wide events while in Ontario.

Hermilio has already lived with farm families in Michigan since the last of April and will live with one other family in Oregon before coming to Ontario.

The International Farm Youth Exchange is sponsored by the National 4-H Club Foundation—a non-governmental educational organization—the Extension Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Land Grant colleges.

Boise Braves and the Great Falls team.

Kay Borge left the first of the week for McCall where she is attending a Baptist camp.

Mrs. Kaye Hammon Parson has enrolled in summer school at Corvallis and is continuing with her studies. She plans to visit her family, the Durlin Hammons after the term is over. Her husband will be leaving soon for duty in Georgia.

The Elmer Cruson family of Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cruson of Phoenix, Calif., and the Bob Kurtz family enjoyed a swim at Sniveleys before a picnic supper on the Bob Kurtz lawn, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Piercy returned home Tuesday from a two weeks' stay in Buhl. Mr. Piercy's brother was seriously hurt in a car accident and passed away last week.

Mrs. Vern Butler, Wallace and Pauline and their guest, Mary Worden drove to McCall for a short vacation and a visit with Margaret Butler there. They returned on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Timmerman left for a visit with the Jake Groot family in Quincy, Wash.

An Adrian school bus load of girls and boys started swimming lessons at the Parma pool Monday morning. Hereafter Adrian swimmers will go on Tuesdays and Thursdays, catching the bus at the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Earnest of Pasco, Wash., are on a vacation trip through the southwest. Their baby daughter is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. McKinley.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mecham are parents of their first son, Tom Allen, born June 8th in Malheur Memorial hospital. Mrs. Wesley Piercy kept the two little sisters while the mother was away. Saturday the mother and baby joined them at the Piercy home where they will remain for a few days. Callers Sunday to see the new baby were Mrs. Arlene Neer of Portland and Mrs. K. I. Peterson of Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill McAttee and children of Marysville, Canada were overnight guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Witt Wednesday. The McAttees are moving to Washington state to make their home.

Ann Newman, Karla Krieger, Marie Borge, Cheryl Kurtz and Sally McMillan are helping with the Bible school this week for the children of migrant workers. Another mile of black top is being spread at this time in this community, beginning at the Luit Stam corner and extending to the Vern Butler corner.

Guests in the Luit Stam home over Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Gumwalt of near Portland, who have been on an extended trip. They were in Calgary, Canada for the stampede and in the Black Hills of the Dakotas to see the Passion Play.

The Naomi Circle will meet with Mrs. M. L. Kurtz in her home July 22 instead of in the church. This will not be a luncheon meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Durlin Hammon, Billy and the L. O. Maylin family of Caldwell spent the week end above McCall fishing. They reported a good catch.

Dale Borge and Ben Zamora returned Friday with others of the Explorers who vacationed in Canada on the Kamloop Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nolen of Lathrop, Calif., visited in the L. A. McDermott home from Wednesday until Monday.
