

Former Nyssan Married June 16 In Temple Rites

Miss Carilee Kesler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vibert L. Kesler of Salt Lake City, Utah, repeated wedding vows with G. Dale Weight June 16, 1959, in the Salt Lake LDS temple. Elder Harold B. Lee, a member of the Council of Twelve Apostles in the LDS church, officiated. The Keslers are former residents of Nyssa.

The Sterling W. Sill home living center was the scene of a reception honoring the newlyweds. For the occasion the bride selected a gown of chantilly lace and tulle. The neckline was lightly beaded and the skirt of lace revealed tiers of tulle applied with lace in the front. Her veil cascaded from a crown of pearls. She carried pink roses centered with an orchid.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Robert H. Coombs, matron of honor; Miss Marilyn Bjork and Miss

Fitting Instructions For Basic Patterns At Nyssa HS Aug. 6

In the Home Economics room at the high school, Aug. 6 at 10:00 a.m., Edna Mae Winsatt, County Extension Agent, will instruct the women of this community how to fit a basic pattern to their own measurements. This pattern will serve as a guide to easier sewing and fitting of other garments in the future.

Basic patterns may be purchased at the local department stores, but as most of them must be ordered, after the correct size is determined, those interested in this meeting should contact these stores soon.

A sheet of instructions is there regarding measurements, materials needed, and the sewing to be done before the meeting time of Aug. 6. If necessary, a second meeting, Aug. 10, will be held to finish the project.
