RETURN FROM SCHOOL

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steffens, Nyssa high school instructors, returned Friday from Moscow, Idaho, where they had been attending the U of I. Steffens, who has been studying science under the National Science Foundation program, studied courses in analytical chemistry and advanced inorganic chemistry. He is working toward a doctorate degree in botany.

Mrs. Steffens has been assigned her research problem for her thesis for a master's degree in home economics.

Nebraska Picnic Group Elects New Officers

The Nebraska Day picnic held at Nyssa south park Sunday was called to order by master of ceremonies "Doc" John Long. Mrs. Roy Rookstool, chairman, led the Lord's prayer in unison.

Prizes went to Mr. and Mrs. Silas Hoffman of Rte. 2, Nyssa, for the oldest couple. Mrs. Hoffman was born in Lodi, Nebr., in 1888 while Mr. Hoffman was born in Eddyville, Nebr., in 1885. He has been ditch rider for 13 years and now is a retired rancher in the Sunset Valley community.

The prize for the most petticoats went to Mrs. Claude Day who had 11 under her centennial dress. Another attractive old time dress was worn by Mrs. W. D. Willard. It was all black, including a black hat sunbonnet. Mr. Willard had the only beard.

The individual traveling the greatest distance was Mrs. Stanley Sommers of Merna, Nebr., who is visiting the Glen Hoffmans.

The youngest child was little 10 months old Susan Kay Hoshaw. Children's games were supervised by Glenda Hoffman and prizes were won by Karla Simpson, Steve Phifer, Gene Betts, Joe Price and Lynda Corfield.

Humorous readings were given by Mrs. James Stephen and Mrs. Carl Grunke. Carl Roth presented two accordion selections. Old time pictures of Nyssa and surroundings, and of Nyssa folks who are now "oldtimers", were shown.

Officers elected for the coming year are, Glen Hoffman, chairman; James Stephen, vice chairman; Mrs. Carl Grunke, re-elected secretary; Mrs. Glen Hoffman, re-elected treasurer; Mrs. Omar Betts, food and drink; and Mrs. James Stephen, publicity and program chairman.

USAF Thunderbirds To Stage Jet Show

Beach, Fla. Flying right wing is Capt. Charles W. Maulsby of Norfolk, Va., and on the left wing is Capt. Gayle Williams of Medford, Ore. In the slot position, at the rear of the diamond formation, is First Lt. Neil L. Eddins of Afton, Wyo. Flying the solo plane is Capt. Herman Griffin of Sumter, S.C., and narrating the show during the demonstration for the audience is Capt. Dick Crane of Salt Lake City, Utah.

The Payette high school Key club is erecting a memorial to the 19 airmen who lost their lives in the tragic air crash near Payette last Oct. 9. The Key club has worked a long time on this dedication and has succeeded in obtaining the "Thunderbirds" to fly an honor guard.

The ceremonies will be held Aug. 27 and will begin at 3 p.m. The Thunderbirds show will begin at 4 p.m. The memorial is located on highway 52 near the site of the Fort Wilson monument.

The show will be free and refreshments will be sold to help defer costs of the monument. Besides being a thrilling show, spectators will have a chance to see a memorial dedicated to those who gave their lives in the service of their country, according to sponsors of the event.

Controlled Deer Tags Under Quota Set

Hunters are advised by the game commission that except for two areas, applications for controlled deer tags, (as of Aug. 10) are considerably below the quota established. These controlled tags for which a fee of $5.00 is charged, give hunters an opportunity to bag an extra deer during the hunting season.

The game commission said that the Alfalfa and Hart Mountain controlled seasons are already oversubscribed which will make a drawing necessary to determine successful applicants. All other areas are below quota including the Snake River and Wallowa Pack areas, Cedar Creek in Tilla-

4-H JUNIOR LEADERS PICNIC AND SWIM PARTY, AUG. 17

The Junior leaders will meet at the Ontario swimming pool Aug. 17 at 7:00 p.m. for their annual swimming party and picnic. The picnic dinner and games will follow the swim.

A short business meeting discussing the county fair 4-H concession booth will be held. The junior leaders are urged to bring a prospective junior leader.
