

Sue Ashworth, Jay M. Mitchell Wed in Portland

Grace Manor Wedding chapel in Portland was the scene Saturday, Aug. 15, for the marriage of Miss Sue Ashworth, daughter of Mrs. B. L. Mecklenburg of Portland, and Jay M. Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Mitchell of Nyssa.

The evening double ring candle-light ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Millen of the Church of the Brethren, as the couple stood before an archway of late summer flowers.

Miss Carla Walker of Portland sang "Because" before the ceremony and "Wedding Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of white Chantilly lace over pink taffeta. She wore a Juliet cap of white flowers and carried a fan bouquet of pink and red roses.

Mrs. Richard Seagren of Portland was matron of honor. She wore a gown of rose taffeta and carried a bouquet identical to that of the bride.

Carlton Huntington was best man.

Miss Junia Kay Mitchell, sister of the bridegroom, was candle-lighter. She wore a white nylon dress and carried a candle set in a bouquet of roses.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mecklenburg wore an ecru lace afternoon dress with blue accessories. Mrs. Mitchell wore a grey and white print jersey dress with white accessories. They each wore corsages of red and white carnations.

A reception followed for 50 guests. A three-tier wedding cake and punch were served by Mrs. Nathan West of Boise, Mrs. Rex Mitchell of Ontario, and Mrs. Wayman Sinden of Walla Walla, Wash.

For her going-away suit, the bride chose a two-piece blue dress with white accessories.

Following a brief honeymoon to San Francisco, the new Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will be at home in Portland at 9326 North Wall Ave., where he is a chemist for McKloskey Paint company.

Mr. Mitchell attended schools in Ontario and Vale and was graduated from Oregon State college. Mrs. Mitchell attended Portland schools.

Yvonne Davenport, Ross Gibson Wed In Double Ring Ceremony August 22

Miss Yvonne Davenport, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Davenport of Caldwell, became the bride of Ross H. Gibson, son of the Jay H. Gibsons of Nyssa, in an early evening ceremony Aug. 22 at the home of the bride's parents. The double ring vows were performed by Bishop T. C. Blacker of the Caldwell LDS First ward in the presence of close relatives and friends.

The bride was lovely in a ballerina length gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta, fashioned with a rounded neckline and elbow length sleeves trimmed in rolled satin. The full skirt fell from a low scalloped waistline. A tiny cap of white feathers held her veil in place. Her jewelry was pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink gladioli centered with pink rosebuds and tied with satin streamers and love knots.

Miss Sandra Davenport was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a pink lace dress and carried a bouquet of pink gladioli and rosebuds.

Jerry Langston of Ontario was best man.

During the wedding ceremony, Jay H. Gibson, father of the bridegroom, sang "I Love You Truly." Miss Mary Ann Dorsey accompanied him and also played the wedding music.

A reception honored the newly married couple from 7 until 9 p.m. at the Davenport home. Tall baskets of gladioli, ranging from the palest pink to deep coral, furnished the setting.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Davenport chose a beige brocaded linen sheath with brown accessories. Mrs. Gibson wore a blue silk afternoon dress with pink accessories. They wore corsages of pink rosebuds and gladioli.

A four-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and decorated with pink roses and lilies of the valley, centered the serving table. The bottom tier was circled with large frosted double wedding rings. The cake was cut and served with punch by Mrs. Weston Frisby and the Misses Reida Mills, Twila Miller, Kay Green and Marianne Dorsey.

Miss Carol Letty had charge of the guest book. Assisting with the gift table were Kay Green, Lois McCashum and Ruby McCashum.

For her going-away ensemble, the bride chose a blue cotton frock with red and white accessories. Following a brief honeymoon trip to an undisclosed location, the new Mr. and Mrs. Gibson will be at home at 1418 1/2 Belmont in Caldwell.

Out-of-state guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Faunt Montgomery of West Point and Ogden, Utah, and many friends from Nyssa and Vale.

MR. and MRS JAMES LeROY BARNES (Schoen Photo)

Miss Dianne Marie Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson, and James LeRoy Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Robb, were united in marriage on Aug. 17, at a 7:30 o'clock evening candlelight ceremony, at the Methodist church in Nyssa.

The Rev. Paul Ludlow officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of 100 relatives and close friends, before arrangements of pink and lavender gladioli.

Miss Wilson, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a street length gown of white chantilly lace over white satin, with white satin inset through the waistline, scooped neckline and three quarter length sleeves. Her veil of white net was held in place by a beaded tiara.

For something old, she wore a single strand of pearls in leaf design that has been in the family for seven generations and presented to the oldest granddaughter on her wedding day. Her heart shaped bridal bouquet was of pink roses and white carnations.

Miss Sandra Nicholson, maid of honor, wore a white, lavender and pink floral chiffon gown and also carried a heart shaped bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Gary Toombs served as best man, while Roger Barnes and Chuck Reib were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wilson chose a beige dress with orange accessories and the groom's mother also wore a beige dress with brown accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

A reception was held, following the ceremony, in the Methodist social hall. Bouquets of pink and lavender gladioli and a three-tier wedding cake, trimmed in lavender and gold, graced the reception table.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Klaas Tensen, and her aunts, Mrs. Norbert Heying, Mrs. Leo Toombs and Mrs. Laverla Toombs presided at the refreshment table. The Misses Anita Poulson and Marilyn
