

County Fair Fun Offered Daily

(Continued from Page 1) This is under the direction of Grant Gibbs and a number of neighboring saddle clubs will participate in this show. The Junior Fat Stock show will be held Friday night with jolopy racing sponsored by the Ontario Junior Chamber of Commerce scheduled for Saturday night. All events will start at 8 p.m. and, with the exception of the jolopy racing, admission will be free.

Bob Humphreys of KSRV has arranged to have the Boise Dancing and Piping society, a Scotch Bagpipe band, perform for fairgoers on the International night show. In addition the Japanese-American Citizens league will stage special Japanese dancing acts under the spotlight. The Basque Ladies' society will have several acts typical of their home country. Mrs. Don Gonzales has arranged a group of Mexican Nationals to entertain with a dancing program that will feature the Mexican Hat dance.

To set the stage for the horse show tonight the Treasure Valley Vaqueros have arranged to have stage coaches operating from the Moore hotel to the fairgrounds during the day. These old original stagecoaches will give free rides from 10:30 in the morning to 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The night show will include a number of games played on horseback with ribbons to be awarded for first, second and third places.

At 2 p.m. Friday afternoon the Malheur County Livestock association will stage a grandstand show that is being arranged by Bill McNulty of Vale. One of the features of this show will be a "hide race" where contestants will race past the grandstand on horseback with their partners riding a cowhide drug by a lariat. A number of local livestock men have already entered this unique contest, according to McNulty. A

Home Extension News Reviewed

The annual installation tea for the Malheur county home extension was held Aug. 4 at the home of Mrs. Edna Mae Wimsatt in Ontario. All county extension officers were installed.

Arrangements of red, white and yellow gladioli were used in place of candles, as have been used previously.

All of the new officers were present and four units were represented. Mary Abbott, district service team member, was a special guest.

Officer training for the Nyssa unit of the county extension was given Wednesday by Mrs. Wimsatt at the Methodist church. Nine officers attended, according to Mrs. Clarence Raymond, new president for the group.

The first meeting for the Nyssa unit will be Sept. 10, following a summer adjournment. Time and place of the meeting will be announced in next week's Gate City Journal.
