Shower Honors Avaneil Walker Tuesday Evening

By Mrs. M. L. Kurtz
Phone 2123
NEWELL HEIGHTS—Mrs. Avaneil Walker, formerly Avaneil Fenn of Newell Heights was an honored guest at a bridal shower Tuesday evening when friends entertained in her honor in the Owyhee LDS church. Relatives and friends attended from here.

The Irvin Topliff family visited her father, Harry Warren near Parma, Sunday afternoon. He had major surgery ten days ago in a Boise hospital and returned home Sunday. Later in the afternoon the Topliff family attended a picnic in the Don Lytle home honoring Don's birthday anniversary.

Lou Pratt and his mother, Mrs. Anna Pratt attended the Pioneer picnic in Vale Friday. They met friends they had not seen for nearly 40 years. Isaac "Zay" Hope formerly a banker in Vale and Mrs. Ed Beam of Ironside, originated the Old Timers picnic some years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Laan and children, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kurtz and Mrs. Dave Highland and children of Fruitland, attended the Thunder Bird air show near Payette, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Topliff and children attended a family picnic at the Leslie Topliff home in Nyssa Saturday afternoon. The Ed Topliff family of Hazelton were also present.

Mrs. Luther Carroll of Umatilla, Ore., and Mrs. Joe Stam of Nyssa visited Saturday with Mrs. Lou Pratt.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leedy, Mrs. Lydia Worden and the Elvin Worden family were Sunday picnic dinner guests in the Verna Costley home in Ridgeview when 21 members and friends gathered to honor the birthday anniversaries of the two grandmothers, Mrs. Worden and Mrs. Costley.

The Raleigh McKinley family had as dinner guests Sunday his brother, the Russell McKinley family of Boise. They formerly were farmers near Vale.

Sunday evening luncheon guests in the M. L. Kurtz home were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Workinger of Shedd, Ore., and Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Moore of Adrian.

Newell Heights Modern Pioneer Club resumed their monthly meetings beginning the first Wednesday in the month, Sept. 2. Mrs. John Fahrenbruch was hostess. A white elephant sale was an event of the afternoon.

This past week FFA and 4-H members and their families were busy with final plans and for attending the County Fair. Several helped in the decorating of their organization's fair booth. Newell Heights was particularly interested in the Farm Bureau booth as quite a lot of seed is grown here and the alkali bee is a friend of ours.

Four-H members who exhibited stock at the County Fair included Richard Sharp, winning first and grand champion with his Hampshire swine. Mary Worden is a member of a calf club and her Holstein heifer won a 4th place in showmanship. Eugene and Judy Pratt took their baby beef calves and found competition very stiff. Judy's calf won 8th place.

Danny and Elizabeth Miller were Saturday overnight guests in the parental Luit Stam home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Piercy and her mother, Mrs. Thurman drove to Buhl a week ago to spend the week end. Mrs. Thurman took sick and was not able to return to Adrian with the Piercy's. She is much improved now.

Mmes. C. B. Hill, George Schelmer, Lydia Worden and R. D. McKinley, attended the luncheon and Bible study meeting Wednesday in the Austin Gilbert home in Adrian. Mmes. Anna Pratt and M. L. Kurtz attended their Bible study circle meeting in the church that same afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Piercy were Saturday evening callers in the Bill Toomb home. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Toomb, Joyce and Bobby of near Hayburn, Idaho.

The M. O. Judd family returned recently from a week's vacation spent near Newport, Ore., on the beach. The John Donner family traveled that far with them the week before.

Mr. and Mrs. John Showenwald, Darlene and a friend returned Tuesday to their home in Ashland after spending the week end with the Bob Kurtz family. They are parents of Mrs. Kurtz' Sunday evening the Kurtz' and their guests were dinner guests in the Elmer Cruson home in Ontario. Saturday they spent the day at Owyhee dam.

Mrs. Kathryn Pratt suffered a severe cut on her hand several days ago when she fell on a piece of broken glass. Her hand is healing nicely.

Quite a large acreage of alfalfa and clover seed will be harvested this fall in this area. Several farmers are mowing fields and Durin Hammon and M. L. Kurtz have combines at work. The yield is predicted to run quite high this year.
