MR. and MRS. DOUGLAS STANFORD LEWIS

Of interest to his friends and relatives in Nyssa was the recent marriage of Douglas Stanford Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lewis, to Miss Judith Ann Lake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmo A. Lake of Manteca, Calif. Bishop Leon Ward officiated at the double ring ceremony in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Manteca.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of imported Chantilly lace and tulle. The Basque bodice was fashioned with a square neckline of lace scallops and short sleeves. The lace detail was repeated in the appliques on the bouffant skirt which fell into a chapel train. Her shoulder length veil was edged with rose applique and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and blue corn flowers, centered with two white-centered lavender orchids.

For something old, she wore a silver wedding band that belonged to her maternal grandmother.

Attending as matron of honor was the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. David Lake, who wore a silver-blue gown of taffeta and Chantilly lace. It was fashioned with portrait neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and bouffant skirt. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and blue cornflowers.

Little Miss Margaret Nicolaysen of Ripon was flower girl, wearing a sleeveless floor length dress of pale yellow taffeta and Chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and yellow marguerites.

Donnie Nicolaysen of Ripon was the ring bearer.

Best man duties were performed by Grant Wrathall, Jr., of Aptos, and the ushers were David Lake and Michael Johnson, both of Manteca.

Mrs. Roy Austin sang "With a Song in My Heart," and "At Dawning," accompanied by Mrs. Leslie Brandon.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the social hall of the church where the newlywed couple cut a four-tiered wedding cake which was made and decorated by Mrs. Roy Peters of Yuba City, aunt of the bride.

Mrs. Lake, mother of the bride, viewed her daughter's wedding wearing a beige shantung sheath dress with black patent accessories. Her corsage was two lavender orchids.

The bride attended Manteca high school, Brigham Young university at Provo, Utah, and has been employed at Sharpe general depot for two years.

The bridegroom was graduated from Nyssa high school and was a student at Brigham Young university, where he met the bride. He is at present employed by the Bank of America in San Jose and plans to complete his education at San Jose state college, majoring in industrial management.
