

—Schoen Studios

Barbara Horn, Jerry Arnoldus Repeat Vows in Methodist Church Sept. 6

An event of the late summer wedding season was the afternoon wedding Sept. 6 of Miss Barbara Louise Horn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Geffman of Nyssa, to Jerry Duane Arnoldus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Arnoldus of La Grande. The Rev. Paul Landlow, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 75 guests in the Nyssa Methodist church.

Two baskets of white gladioli and blue carnations were placed as either side of the altar and the seven branch candelabra with blue tapers were lighted by Larry Wilson and Susan Smith. White satin bows and greenery were placed at the ends of the pews and in the windows with the pillars.

Mrs. Grant Jones played the wedding marches and accompanied Charles Jones, soloist, who sang "Always" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her step-father, wore a gown of traditional white chantilly lace over pleated tulle and satin. The floor length gown was fashioned with a scalloped sabbine neckline and long pointed sleeves. The skirt was lined with lace panels in the front and lace and tulle there in the back. She wore a cut-work crown of white satin and shoulder length veil of illusion bordered in lace. Her bouquet was pink rosebuds and gladioli and white streamers tied with love knots.

Mrs. Maurice Lane of Portland was matron of honor. She wore a pale blue street length dress of blue brocade with a blue sate cummerbund. She wore a blue sate cap and a short veil of blue net. She carried a maid's nosegay.

Miss Nancy Wilson was flower girl. She wore a white sheer dress with a blue bow and cummerbund and a headband of flowers. She carried a basket of rose petals.

Bill Lanman of North Powder, Ore., was best man and Edward Horn of Nyssa and Ray Hyde of La Grande were ushers.

Mrs. Coffman chose for her daughter's wedding, a blue lace sheath with a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Arnoldus wore a champagne lace dress and a corsage of pink roses.

A reception in the church social hall followed the ceremony. The refreshment table was centered with a tiered wedding cake of white with touches of the palest blue. Arrangements of coral gladioli and tapers were used as decoration. Miss Joy Gay Roth played reception music.

Serving the cake and punch were Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs.

Job's Daughters Plan Style Show At Next Meeting

Bethel No. 33, International order of Job's Daughters met in their first full session September 3, with 25 members and 22 council members in attendance. Honored Queen, Dianne Maulding, presided and installed Betty Glascock, senior custodian; Bonnie House, fourth messenger and Betty Wakefield, inner guard. Dr. and Mrs. Maulding were escorted to the east and they installed the following council members: Mrs. Cecil Morrison, Jr., assistant auxiliary secretary; Mrs. Harold Glascock, hospitality; Mrs. John Steinger, socialability; Mrs. Colene White, paraphernalia; Mrs. Paul House, merits and Cec. Steinger, Jr., transportation. Mrs. Fred Bracken, guardian secretary, gave a report on the Wagon Train project.

A style show is scheduled for the Sept. 17 meeting, each girl is asked to have her script ready.

Harry Wakefield, Mrs. Walt Roth, and Mrs. L. A. Maulding. Miss Shirley Smith had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Boyd Haney, Miss Sandra Goshart, Lela Parmer and Carole Greig assisted at the gift table.

For her wedding trip to the Oregon coast, the new Mrs. Arnoldus chose a blue and white suit with white accessories and she wore the corsage from her wedding bouquet.

The bride was graduated from Nyssa high school in 1956 and is a senior at Eastern Oregon College of Education in La Grande. The bridegroom graduated from La Grande high school and Bachelor Business College.

They will make their home at 1805 M. Ave., Apt. 2, La Grande, while they finish their schooling.

Among out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lanman and Bobbie and Christine and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sanderson of Summerville, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Billerback of Pendleton; Mrs. Laverne Mason of Elgin; Jerry Scott, Jess Tetric and Raymond Hyde of La Grande; Mary Klaus and daughters of Spokane, and Mr. and Mrs. William Norton and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Lane of Portland.

—Schoen Studios

Schaffeld-Thompson Nuptials Held September 6 in Vale Catholic Church

St. Patrick's Catholic church in Vale was the scene of the wedding Sept. 6, of Miss Agnes Schaffeld, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schaffeld of Vale, and Ronald Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herschal Thompson of Adrian.

For her wedding, Miss Schaffeld wore a full length gown of white slipper satin detailed with scoop neckline, empire fitted bodice and princess waist, pleated in the back to fall in a full chapel train.

Her shoulder length veil of illusion bordered with white lace was held in place with a seed pearl tiara. She carried two white orchids on her prayer book. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Miss Virginia Taghon of Vale was maid of honor. She wore a blue satin street-length gown fashioned identical to that of the bride.

She carried an arm bouquet of white and blue gladioli. Miss Vickie Schaffeld was flower girl. She wore a dress fashioned as the gown of the maid of honor, in pale blue satin.

Dick Herriman was best man and Don and Gary Thompson, brothers of the bridegroom were ushers.

Father William Rhoden performed the double ring ceremony before 200 guests. Mrs. Phil Uberuaga was soloist and Mrs. Harry McGinley accompanied her and played the wedding march.

Two baskets of white gladioli and blue chrysanthemums and double candelabra furnished the setting for the wedding. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Schaffeld wore a royal blue lace dress and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Thompson wore a brown silk suit with a white carnation corsage.

A 4-tier wedding cake decorated with tinted blue birds centered the refreshment table. Following the initial cut by the bride and bridegroom, the cake was cut by Mrs. Rex Walters of Boise, and served by Mrs. Harold Wilson. Mrs. Ted Schaffeld poured the punch and Mrs. John Schaffeld poured coffee.

Mr. Robert Wilson had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Duane DeLong, Mrs. Rosie McCoy and Mrs. Terry Musgrove assisted with the gifts.

The new Mrs. Thompson chose a pink sheath with black accessories for her travel costume. Following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, the couple will make their home in Corvallis, where he is a senior at Oregon State College, majoring in fish and game biology.

Out-of-town guests for the wed-

Mrs. Beyerle Guest Of ANK Gardeners; Tells of Castle

ANK Garden club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Frank T. Morgan with Mrs. R. H. Young of Parma assisting with the 1:30 dessert. Guests, besides the regular members were Mrs. Tuck Beyerle of Boise, Mrs. Leon Jones of Caldwell and Mrs. John Connor, Mrs. Vic Marshall and Mrs. Maurice O. Judd of Nyssa.

Mrs. Beyerle, who has spent considerable time at the Hurst estate in California, told club members of this castle, which has been given to the State of California by the Hurst estate.

During her talk, she told knowledgeably of some of the treasures there from swimming pools to the 100 bedrooms on the second floor, but she cautioned members that until adequate elevators are installed, tours do not include the second floor with the bedrooms, but plans are to open them to the public possibly within two years.

She also told of tapestry embroidered with silver, of ancient Grecian urns and tile from the Parthenon in Italy used in the swimming pools.

During the business portion of the meeting, the club members set Oct. 3 as flower show time. The show will be staged at the community hall in Parma. Members also voted to buy trees to plant on the west side of Malheur Memorial hospital and to buy a book on conservation which will be placed in the Malheur County Library.

Members also voted their annual gift to the scholarship fund of the state garden club federation. Each year, two scholarships for advanced study in horticulture are given to college students.

Mrs. M. L. Judd will host the next meeting Oct. 13. Mrs. Geo. Rush will have the program.

Janet Wakefield, Perry Davis Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Wakefield of Nyssa announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet Elaine, to Perry Davis, son of Mrs. Phil Pratt of Enterprise, Ore.

Both are graduates of Enterprise high school. Miss Wakefield is a sophomore at Eastern Oregon college at La Grande in elementary teacher training. Davis is a sophomore in engineering at Oregon State college.

No definite date has been set for the wedding, as both will continue their college education.

Clyde Swisher Talks At Book Club Meet

Book Club met Saturday at the home of Mrs. M. L. Judd, for dessert luncheon. Special guests were Mrs. Frank Morgan and Mrs. Gertrude Timmerman.

Mrs. Joe Brumbach introduced Clyde Swisher, NHS teacher, who studied Shakespeare at Stratford-on-Avon in England this summer. He told of spending six weeks there and six weeks in Spain, Austria and France.

Fourteen guests attended. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Ralph Haworth in Nam-pa.

EVERYONE'S COMING TO NYSSA FOR THE SECOND ANNUAL...

TREASURE DAYS

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

THREE LUCKY WINNERS

will take home

BICYCLES

Ages 4 to 12 May Enter

★ ★

Fill out the coupon printed in the Sept. 10 Gate City Journal, or get them from any merchant. You must be present to win.

★ ★

Boys and Girls!

FREE

COTTON CANDY

$600

in cash

Given Away!

Four drawings for $150 each will be held at

1:30—3:00—4:00—5:00

On Main Street

★ ★

Names will be drawn from Bank Days list. If you're not on the regular list, register at Idaho Power Co. office.

★ ★

A WINNER EACH TIME!

SHOW BEGINS AT 2 P.M.
THIRD and MAIN

... Five Major Prizes ...

Largest Dog — Smallest Dog
Longest Ears — Shortest Tail
Best-Dressed Dog

★ ★

Get Entry Blanks at Nyssa Stores.

IT'S FREE! COME IN AND GET YOUR ENTRY BLANK TODAY!