MR. and MRS. PERRY DAVIS

Janet Wakefield, Perry Davis Wed In Enterprise Community Church

On Sunday afternoon, Dec. 27, at 4 p.m., Miss Janet Elaine Wakefield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wakefield of Nyssa, became the bride of Perry Davis, son of Mrs. Phil Pratt of Enterprise. The Rev. John Munsey performed the double ring ceremony in the Community Congregational church which was decorated with small Christmas trees, seven-branch candelabrum and bouquets of white and silver.

Robbie Wakefield, brother of the bride, was candle lighter. Mrs. John Munsey was organist and also accompanied Leatha and Ellen Sager of Nyssa when they sang "O Day of Golden Promise" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of traditional lace over taffeta and net with a back panel of net ruffles, fashioned with long sleeves and a scalloped neck and hemline. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held in place by a crown of lace and seed pearls. She carried her Rainbow Bible centered with a corsage of red roses and white streamers.

Miss Kathy Wakefield was maid of honor for her sister and was attired in a gown of Christmas green silk and cotton. She carried a nosegay bouquet of red and white carnations. Ann Pratt, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and her frock was of red taffeta, fashioned as the maid of honor's. Her bouquet was of red and white carnations.

Arthur Brock served as best man and ushers were Richard Courtney and Dick Davis, brother of the bridegroom. The men in the wedding party were attired in white dinner jackets, black trousers and black cummerbunds and each wore a red carnation boutonniere. The groom's boutonniere was a red rose.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The serving table was covered with a white linen cloth, centered with a four-tiered wedding cake featuring roses and bells and flanked by red tapers surrounded by green foliage. The cake was baked and decorated and presented to the young couple as a gift of Mrs. Ida Caudle.

After the initial cut of the wedding cake by the couple, it was served by Mrs. Maude Ortmann and Miss Mildred Day. Mrs. Eva Wakefield, grandmother of the bride, presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Lee Jester, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Terry Wakefield, brother of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. The newlyweds opened the gifts, assisted by Miss Kay Cole, Mrs. Larry McFetridge and Miss Beverly Ferguson of La Grande.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wakefield chose a navy blue street-length dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a navy blue and white print afternoon dress with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage. The bride chose a blue knit suit with matching accessories for her going-away ensemble and she wore a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

After a short honeymoon trip the couple will be at home in La Grande where both are students in the sophomore class at Eastern Oregon college.

The bride is a graduate of Enterprise high school with the class of 1958 and the bridegroom was graduated from the same high school, class of 1957.
