Vale Law Firm Adds Associate

Robert D. Lytle and W. F. Schroeder announced this week the formation of the law firm of Lytle, Schroeder and Denning as of Jan. 1, 1960, continuing the earlier firm of Lytle and Schroeder of Vale.

Don Denning, formerly of Bend, was graduated from the law school of the University of Oregon in 1955, was admitted to the Oregon State Bar in 1956 and entered the United States Air Force as legal officer in the office of the staff judge advocate. As such, he practiced in Germany and Arizona and was discharged as a first lieutenant in August, 1958. He became associated with the firm of Lytle and Schroeder in January, 1959.

While in high school at Bend, Denning was president of the Oregon Student Body association and a delegate to the National Student Council association.

HOME EXTENSION UNIT HAS UPHOLSTERY CLASSES

Upholstery classes are being held at the old Cairo school each Tuesday for four weeks and are for the members of the Malheur Home Extension units and for other interested ladies in the valley, who registered for the class in December. There are approximately twelve ladies attending the classes which started Jan. 5 and are working on their respective projects.
