

Nu Acres Grange Activities Told

NU ACRES—Thursday evening, March 24, the Nu Acres Grange held their "Operations Forward" meeting with a good crowd in attendance. A potluck dinner was served after the state officers and other visitors were introduced and each spoke a few words.

Most of the remarks centered around "Why I am a Granger." L. A. Messersmith of Haas Grange at Weiser played several piano solos and Mrs. Cecil Evans and Mrs. Gerald Russell played a piano duet, "Nola."

State officers attending, accompanied by their husbands or wives, were Master W. E. Adams of Eagle, Lecturer Mrs. Dale Bates of Meridian, Assistant Steward and Lady Assistant Steward Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lawrence of Eagle, Steward J. B. Howard of Orchard Avenue at Payette and Executive Committeeman Ernil Jerome of Kuna. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Messersmith of Haas and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sinden of Unity, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Evans and Roy attended a lecturers' and home economics conference for officers of the Payette-Washington Pomona Grange at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Laird at Weiser Flat Sunday afternoon. The National and state contests were discussed in detail and everyone present felt the meeting was a great success.

The National Grange Sewing contest closes April 30. If anyone would like to sew in this contest, get in touch with any Grange member, she will be glad to sponsor you as an entry.

Mr. and Mrs. George McKee visited Sunday with her brother, J. W. Armstrong in Wilder. Later they drove to Boise where they visited her sister, Mrs. John Douglas.
