Amity Club Group Elects Officers At Annual Dinner

"Easter" was the theme used at the annual banquet of the Amity club held Friday night at Carl's Doll House. A large yellow hen seated on a gaily decorated nest of colored eggs centered the long table. Glittering Easter eggs topped by a petite nose-gay were perched in hand painted china egg cups and placed as favors for each guest. Place cards were fluffy tailed Easter bunnies.

The program consisted of fun singing, conducted by Mrs. Lloyd Lewis and Mrs. Henry Zobell. Mrs. Mel Beck represented the Great Paderewski in humor and music. A cleverly composed narrative of each member was given by Mrs. W. O. Peterson. Mrs. Frell Blair, Mrs. Dean Fife and Mrs. Snowden Roberts were in charge of the program, and Mrs. Zobell, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Taft Pett, the entertainment.

Mrs. Mark Moncur was presented with a gift as outgoing president. Vice presidents were Mrs. Mel Beck and Mrs. Charles Mann. Mrs. Delbert Hooper acted as secretary.

The newly elected officers for the coming year are Mrs. Dean Fife, president; Mrs. Arve Child and Mrs. Hooper, vice presidents, and Mrs. Howard Myrick, secretary. Mrs. J. Elwood Flinders was retained as club reporter. Committees will be announced at the April 29 meeting when the group meets with Mrs. Zobell.

Councils Arrive Home From Six Weeks' Trip

SUNSET VALLEY—Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Council returned Tuesday from a six-week trip through the southern states to Texas, then to Iowa and west to Washington. They went through 10 states, visiting relatives at all points of the trip.

Among highlights of the trip were the Casa Grande in Arizona, the Indian city at Anadarko, Wootaroc museum at Bartlesville, Okla., the fully furnished old house at Tombstone, Ariz., and other museums.

They traveled through almost all kinds of weather and climate, from potato, onion and gladioli harvesting in Arizona to snowbanks at the roadside seven or eight feet high in Kansas. They were held up by floods in Iowa and South Dakota. The Councils report a wonderful trip and enjoyable visits, but are glad to be back in Oregon.

Low Cost Way to Grow Good Pullets

Pullets have to be big and well-developed to make money these days.

If you're looking for good profits from your growing pullets next fall and winter—NOW is the time to develop them right.

The first choice of poultry farmers—large and small—for this job is Purina Growena. You can't beat it for growing strong, vigorous, future layers.

Yet, if you'll follow the easy Purina Controlled Feeding Plan, the cost of feed per bird is about 20 cents less than what most farmers are paying today.

So, if you want really good pullets at a very low cost, see us real soon for Purina Growena.
