

Missionary Nurse Presents Program At Auxiliary Meet

Miss Dorothy Wiseman, a missionary and nurse in the Belgian Congo, Africa was guest speaker at Malheur Memorial hospital meeting Monday. Miss Wiseman presented slides and told of her experiences in that country and of the hospital there.

Mrs. Emma Merrick, chairman of the hospital canning project reported on the organizations that plan to participate in the canning program and the food they will furnish.

Mrs. Wesley Browne, pink lady chairman, announced that there will be a meeting Friday morning at 9:30 in the hospital basement and stated that all ladies interested in serving as pink ladies should attend this session.

The Rebekah lodge was extended a vote of thanks for their donation of tea towels for the hospital kitchen.

Air conditioning for the hospital was suggested and discussed, as a possible project for the auxiliary. A committee was named to inquire as to the various types and costs.

Auxiliary Members Plan for Poppy Day, To Mend for Hospital

American Legion auxiliary of Post 79 met in regular session, April 21 at the community hall.

A report given by Mrs. Leon Roberts showed that the organization had loaned 14 beds, six wheel chairs, three pair of crutches and two canes.

A set of tubs have been purchased to help with the dishwashing. It was decided that the group will do mending for Malheur Memorial hospital during the month of May.

On May 11, the auxiliary will help with the TB x-ray unit. Poppy day was also a topic discussed. A nominating committee will report at the first meeting in May.

Edith Pounds was not on hand when her name was drawn for the pot-of-gold.

The Ontario Lutheran church was the scene Easter Sunday, April 17, for a double ring ceremony, uniting Norma Jean Benedict and John A. Lienkaemper in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Deward L. Benedict and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bert B. Lienkaemper. Performing the ceremony was the Rev. John Briehl of the Faith Lutheran church in Nyssa. The sanctuary was decorated with large baskets of white and yellow mums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace over taffeta fashioned with scoop neckline trimmed in appliqued leaves, had long pointed sleeves, and featured a chapel train. A cap of seed pearls held her finger tip veil and she carried a cascade of three purple orchids surrounded by stephanotis.

Doris Benedict, wearing a gown of yellow chiffon over taffeta was maid of honor for her sister, she carried a crescent shaped bouquet of baby iris. Also attending the bride was Mrs. Frank Spencer and Annabel Arai, their gowns were identical to that of the maid of honor and they carried crescent shaped bouquets of white and cream carnations.

Serving as best man was Gary Straube and ushers were Gene Servoss and Charles Thomas.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. After the newlyweds made the initial cut of the castle shaped wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom and decorated in yellow and white, it was cut by Mrs. Robert Meisinger. Mrs. Charlie Newbill served the cake. Mrs. Fred Schild poured coffee and Mrs. Wesley Brown poured the punch. Also attending the reception were Joan Maulding, June Feik and Sandra Meisinger who received the gifts with Mrs. Gene Servoss in charge of the guest book.

For her wedding trip to Reno and Lake Tahoe, the bride chose a green and beige tweed suit with carnal accessories and a purple orchid corsage.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Nyssa high school. The bride attended Pacific Lutheran College and the groom graduated in 1959 from Oregon State College and is now employed at the Thomas Realty in Gladstone, Oregon.

They will make their home at 5645 N. E. Sinclair in West Linn.

Among out of town guests were, Mrs. Fred Schild, Scottsbluff, Nebr., Leo Schilling, Greeley, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shuey and Mrs. Sybil McReynolds of Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Driscoll, John Day, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Glea Billings of Nampa, Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Schaeffer and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Quick of Payette, Charles Thomas, Bea Rayle and Gary Straube of Portland.
