

Nu Acres Grange Has Style Show, Hears of Africa

By Farmerette Club

NU ACRES—A style revue was featured at the open meeting of the Nu Acres Grange last Thursday evening. Miss Kristine Ky-naston played three piano solos and Mrs. Bess Murphy, who spent a month in Africa visiting her daughter last winter, showed slides and told of her trip.

In the style revue Mrs. Blanche Neely placed first in the contest. Mrs. Ravena Martin second in the ladies' division. Miss Freda Evans placed first in the junior division. Mrs. Lowell Dalley, Mrs. Sherman Keck, and Mrs. George Smit, Sr. were the judges. Prizes were presented to the winners and tokens of appreciation to the judges by the home economics chairman, Calvin Kersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Evans attended the meeting of the Unity Grange at Weiser Friday night. Four state officers were in attendance.

Sunday callers at the J. T. Martin home were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. James Wheelock, and Mrs. James Shill and Christie and Randy Shill of Caldwell. The Mitchells and Wheelocks were neighbors of the Martins near Durango, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Martin called on Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kurtz at Nyssa this week.

Judge

PROVEN Honesty, Reliability and Integrity . . . The local Vale bank has taken care of my financial needs for 30 years.

PROVEN Judgment . . . The fact that I have been able to run my own business with reasonable success, and that my neighbors who know me best have selected me to represent them on various boards and committees dedicated to community betterment.

PROVEN Reputation for Fairness . . . The fact that my candidacy is supported by outstanding citizens who come from all parts of the county. These people are leaders in various religious groups, farm organizations, businessmen, ranchers and farmers.

- Both Democrats and Republicans who have known me for many years believe me to be competent and fair.
- I am committed to a planned, coordinated program for roads and public works.
- I am committed to a lean budget—Needs not Wants should prevail.
- I have no personal axe to grind, no specific group to represent.
- I have only a deep desire to be of further service to the county that has been my home for many years.

I Will Appreciate Your Support on May 20.
