

Emblem Club Meets For Final Session, Has Memorial Service

The final Emblem club meeting, before July and August recess, was called to order by President Kay Toedemeier Monday evening, June 13.

Mrs. Sam Taylor, Ontario area charity chairman, explained extensive dental needs of a local girl and the club voted to have the work done.

Attention of the assembly was called to a citation from Joe Dyer in behalf of the Arthritis and Rheumatism foundation to the emblem club for its efforts in the fund drive.

The selection committee, with Mrs. H. Pearman Rowe as chairman, announced that the name of Past President Inez Wilson had been submitted to state and national as Emblem Woman of the Year.

Instruction regarding the club's views on resolutions coming up for vote was given to delegates who will leave by bus Thursday morning for state convention in Eugene.

Eulogy was read by Mrs. S. Conley Davis and the charter draped in reverent memorial to Esther Gilmore, seventh president, as choir members in formal robes sang "Teach Me to Pray as One."

One of 125 pin cushion favors made by Mrs. Lamont Fife for the state convention was shown.

The meeting was adjourned to the dining room for refreshments where six members were seated at the birthday table to receive their Emblem pens.
