

Barbara Jaques Installed at Eugene As Madam State President of Eagles

Mrs. Elmer (Barbara) Jaques was elected madam state president at the Eagles convention held at Eugene June 23-25. She was installed Saturday in formal ceremony. Her duties for the year will be to visit each of the 38 auxiliaries of Oregon and to attend Grand National convention to be held in Miami, Fla., the first week in August. She will go as Oregon representative.

Mrs. Elmer Jaques

The state convention was held at the Eugene hotel and 351 members registered from the various lodges.

Mrs. Mary Cutting, Grand aerie representative of New Westminster, B.C., and the grand madam inside guard, also attended the convention and spoke to the group on membership. Oregon auxiliaries had an increase of 814 new members the past year.

Thursday noon the Eugene Moose lodge gave a banquet at their new home for all members attending the convention from region 4 in Eastern Oregon.

Representatives of the Nyssa lodge were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jaques, Mrs. Chester Mills, Mrs. Fay Collins, Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Cleaver, Mr. and Mrs. Glade Chadwick, Ken Renstrom, Bernice Frost, Woodie Seuell, Bill Hipp and Claude Willson.

The local auxiliary delegates drew attention wherever they appeared, dressed in identical white blouses and bright red and white pinafores. According to members attending, they felt that the "eastern seaboard" town of Nyssa was well advertised.

On the return trip, Mr. and Mrs. Jaques, Mrs. Collins and Mrs. Mills visited the Bend aerie lodge. During dinner there, Webb Loy, state aerie membership director and manager of the Bend lodge, showed colored movies taken by him on his Eagles trip to Hawaii in January of this year. The Loys were on hand to get pictures of an erupting volcano in Hawaii.

AUXILIARY REPEATS CALL FOR CANNED GOODS

Malheur Memorial hospital auxiliary met for its regular meeting Monday at the hospital meeting room. The canning project was discussed and again a call for fruits or vegetables was asked. Anyone having some to spare is asked to contact Mrs. Emma Merrick.

Plans for a Founders day were discussed and also the possibility of purchasing air conditioning units for the hospital. Plans for a partition to be built in the meeting room were shown. It will have bookshelves and storage space combined.

Gallegos-Gomez Vows Exchanged In Payette Rites

Miss Dolores Gallegos and Javier Gomez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Camelio Gomez of Arrusa, Spain, were united at a 4:30 afternoon ceremony Saturday, June 18, by a justice of the peace at her home in Payette, Idaho.

Miss Gallegos chose for her double ring wedding a beige suit with pink accessories and carried a bouquet of pink gladioli and rose buds.

Miss Louise Gallegos, wearing a blue dress and white accessories, was bridesmaid for her cousin. Joe Rama served as best man.

A 7 o'clock reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Gallegos at 920 North 2nd street in Nyssa, with approximately 45 guests attending. Baskets of pink and white gladioli and a three-column layer wedding cake graced the serving table. Hosting the reception were the bride's three aunts, Mrs. Gallegos, Mrs. W. T. Connell and Mrs. Solomon Gallegos.

The new Mrs. Gomez is an employee at Bennett's cafe and the bridegroom is with Ralph Jones dairy. They are at home on route 2, Nyssa.

Emblem Members Attend Eugene Meet; State Officers Named

The fourth annual meeting of the Oregon State association of Emblem clubs convened at Eugene hotel in Eugene June 17 with 11 clubs represented and approximately 300 members registered. Thirty-five from Ontario travelled there by chartered bus.

A trophy for first place was won by Ontario in the ritualistic contest. The bowling team won second place in team bowling with Marie Moggridge placing second in all events.

Among other honors won by Ontario were the most hours of service work, more news lineages locally and in the national magazine, and the greatest amount contributed to charity.

Mrs. Bert Anderson was toastmistress when the choir was featured in a number of selections including "Teach Me to Pray," "The Cuckoo Cries," and a parody to the "Anniversary Song," composed by Lela Oxman in honor of this fourth meeting. The "Hokey Pokey" act was also put on with the choir assisting.

Election of officers placed two from the Ontario club in state offices, with Mrs. Lamont Fife, now state chaplain, elected to fourth state vice president, and President Kay Toedemeier elected as state historian. Helen Davis of Seaside was elected president for the ensuing year.

It was learned that National Emblem President Mildred Thorne of California will honor Ontario with a visit Aug. 2.

Quarterly meeting of the Oregon association of Emblem clubs will meet in Ontario early in November.

ingly in the summer, he said, and we should make every effort to dispel that idea. The council is planning to investigate having the map made in quantities and give all the towns an opportunity to get them for outside mailings. Give-Away 'Well Received'

Fred Bracken made a report that the Blanket Give-away day, June 18, was well received by the public.

Lynn Snodgrass reported on the Nyssa Nite Rodeo, July 8-9, and said that plans were progressing real well and that he had received many offers of help, if needed, by local merchants.

Henry Hartley, superintendent of schools at North Bend, Ore., was a guest. He was formerly superintendent of Nyssa schools, leaving here in 1954.

Miss Opal Naomi Cooper, Kyle Sager Married June 4 in Evening Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Sager

At an 8:30 o'clock evening ceremony June 4, Miss Opal Naomi Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Van E. Cooper of Fruitland, became the bride of Kyle Sager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Sager, Sr., of the Nu Acres community. The event took place in the Fruitland Church of the Brethren.

The Rev. Chester Sager of Midvale Baptist church officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of 300 invited guests.

The sanctuary was decorated with pink and white peonies and mums and tapers in double candelabra. For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of imported white lace over net and taffeta, featuring a chapel length train. The colonial styled bodice had a sabrina neckline and her fingertip veil was held by a tiara of seed pearls.

Miss Vannalene Cooper attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids, Linda Pritzl, Sharon Colwell and Margaret Byers all wore identical pink brocade taffeta dresses and carried pink and white carnations.

Janette Plager and Sharon Young, cousins of the bride, were candle lighters. Flower girls were Rhonda McDaniel and Jeanie Johnson. Ronnie Strong was ring bearer.

Harley Sager, Jr., served his brother as best man and other male attendants were Maynard Sager, Don Baines and Arthur Sager.

Soloist was Marlene Ashby and organ music for the wedding was furnished by Mrs. Earl Fisher.

Mrs. W. C. Peterson was pianist for the event.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor with Mrs. S. J. Moulton in charge, assisted by Mrs. E. M. Bingaman. Pouring were Mrs. Fred Moore and Mrs. Ed Plager, aunts of the bride. Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. Henry Cole, Mrs. Lilburn Cooper, Mrs. Wayne Hoffman and Mrs. Clyde Young. Sharon Brown was in charge of the guest book and Susan Brown, Nancy Dewey, Karen Browning and Mary Ann LaVelle presided at the gift table.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cooper wore a dress of dusty rose lace over taffeta and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Sager wore a navy blue lace frock and a corsage of pink roses.

Among out-of-town guests were Mrs. Iva Sager, Messrs. and Mmes. Bela Sager and family, Fred Moore, Lilburn Cooper of Caldwell, Blaine Brown and family, Clarence Miller, Ed Plager of Nampa, Chester Sager and family of Midvale, Daniel Harris of Prairie City, Clyde Young of Parma, David LaVelle, Brownlee dam, Wayne Hoffman of Salem, Ray Johnson of Baker and Mrs. Nollin Collins of Parma.

The new Mrs. Sager was graduated from Fruitland high school with the class of 1950 and the bridegroom was also graduated from Fruitland high with the class of 1958.

Following a wedding trip into Canada, the couple is at home in Vale where Sager is employed at U.S. National bank.
