Homeowner's Report on Electric Heat:

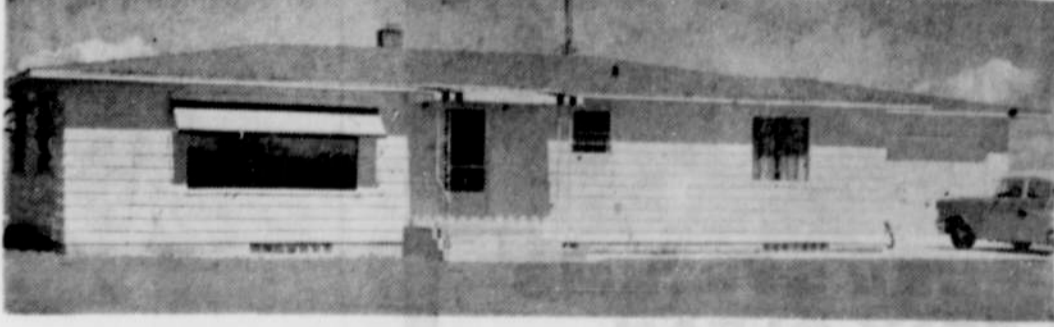

"Freedom from Drafts is Ideal for our Small Children"

"We have enjoyed electric heat in our home for two years. The cost has been less than we previously paid in a smaller home with furnace heating.

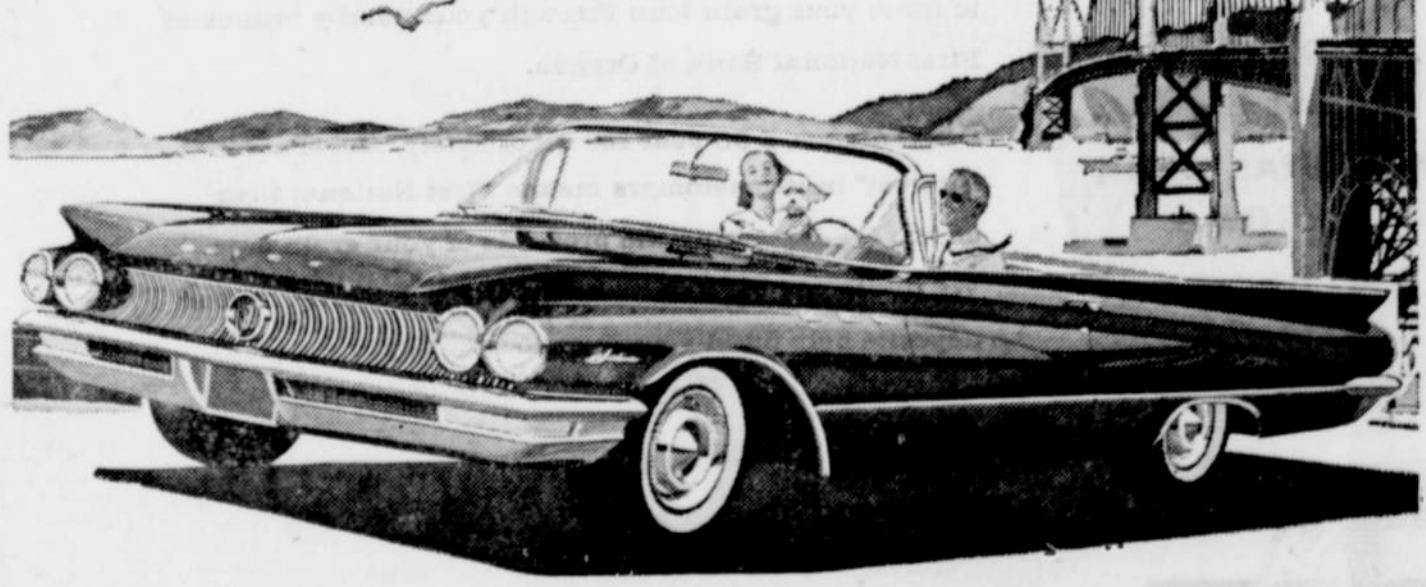

"We've appreciated the room-by-room temperature control and complete absence of maintenance worries. Floor temperatures are as warm as the ceilings and freedom from drafts is ideal for our small children. Were we to build another home, it would have electric heat!"
