Rineharts 'Adopt' Student from Greece

Mary F. Graham Announces Judge Write-in Campaign

Mary F. Graham of Vale informed the Journal by telephone yesterday morning (Wednesday) that she was running for the position of county judge on a write-in vote basis and would send her written statement in the afternoon.

She said that Oregon law did not permit her to run on an independent ticket but that the write-in method was perfectly legal and that she felt the same way about the judgeship as she did before.

In the May primary Miss Graham was one of five Republican candidates seeking the county judge nomination. She came out in second place, some 50 votes behind Ellis White of Ontario. She later had a recount with the results practically unchanged. Others in the contest were Frank Elfering, Earl Flock and Earl Bopp.

Statement Published

Miss Graham's statement follows: "Shortly after the primary election I was approached by a group offering to circulate petitions to put my name on the ballot in the fall as an independent candidate for county judge. I knew this was prohibited by Oregon statute, since I had filed as a Republican in the primary, so I was asked to check my legal status as a write-in candidate.

"This I found was entirely legal, the writing in of my name without any other mark constituting a legal vote. Interestingly enough I learned that even if my name were misspelled, the vote would (Continued on Page 6)

Attention, Kids! Back-to-School Parade Tomorrow

A downtown parade is planned tomorrow beginning at 2 p.m. as part of the annual Chamber of Commerce back-to-school event for Nyssa school children, according to Royce Irby, chairman.

Parade contestants will be judged in four categories—pets, doll buggies, homemade soap box cars, bikes, trikes and wagons. Prizes will be $7.50, $3 and $2 in each division. A grand prize of $10 will be awarded to any one individual or group in the parade, chosen best by the judges.

The parade will be followed by a watermelon eating contest and feed at Nyssa south park. Prizes for this event have not been announced.

It is not necessary to register, Irby said, and the parade will assemble at the vacant lot across from Eder's Lumber yard on North First street.

Route of the parade will be down Main street to South Fifth, thence to the city park. All contestants are urged to be at the starting point promptly at 2 p.m.

Judging parade entries will be Roger Fleenor, acting manager of the Merc. and Mrs. Bob Palmer, secretary at Palmer Bros.

'Process Raw Materials,' Chamber Told By Oregon Planning Official For Development of Local Industry

Nyssa Chamber of Commerce members were told Wednesday noon that the type of industry that the area should go after was the processing of the raw products that are now shipped out of the area.

Rupert W. Kennedy, representing the Oregon Department of Planning and Development, said that Oregon needed plants to utilize raw products, to utilize the college graduates now leaving for other states due to a lack of job opportunity, and to provide for 10,000 now unemployed within the state.

He said that as high as 70 percent of college graduates with certain skills were being drained off by other states at the present time. The planning and development department is relatively new but the University of Oregon is making a study of it and will have more technical help available soon.

Potato Processing Suggested

For the Nyssa area he said they felt that a potato processing plant was the most feasible and that if unable to find an investor that it might be well to form a local company to begin operations on a small scale.

A survey has not been made of the area with any other projects in mind, but Kennedy said the state would help with leadership and personnel to get the necessary information that would be desired by outside investors.

Tom Jones reported that his proposal to reorganize the old Malheur Development company had been received favorably by both Ontario and Vale and that each town would have a delegation here at the Friday noon meeting.

Lloyd Mackrill reported on the "back-to-school" parade and watermelon feed, and Fred Bracken discussed progress on the Harvest Festival.

Swensen Wins Prize At Bank Days Event

Names drawn this week at Nyssa Bank Days promotion were T. H. Brewer, route 1, Nyssa, for the $50 jackpot prize; Lottie Phillips of 101 Emison avenue, Nyssa, for $10 second prize; and Alvin Swensen of route 2, Nyssa, for third prize of $5.

Swensen was in a participating store to claim his $5 award. The jackpot prize will advance to $100 next week.

Nyssa Delegate Describes Interesting Experiences During U. N. Pilgrimage

By MARILYN PRATT

I was privileged to be selected as one of the delegates on the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth sponsored by Odd-fellows and Rebekahs. I traveled on the Northwest bus with delegates from Oregon, Washington and British Columbia.

All Oregon delegates met in Portland on July 6 where a banquet was held for us. I was rather scared when I first saw all those strange faces, but everyone was friendly and we were soon all acquainted.

Early the next morning we started the pattern that became routine for us—eating an early breakfast, checking to see that our suitcases were loaded on the bus, choosing our seats and settling down for a long ride.

That night we arrived in Spokane where we met delegates from Washington and British Columbia.

Our trip took us across Canada to the Great Lakes region. While in Canada we stayed in Regina, Saskatchewan, where we visited the Parliament buildings and Mounty training center.

On July 17, we dropped back into the United States and picked up two delegates from Minnesota. That day we went to Bemidji lake where huge statues of Paul Bunyan and Babe, the blue ox, are located. The next day, after traveling the length of Lake Superior, we crossed the border back into Canada at Sault Ste. Marie. We traveled through the province of Ontario into the province of Quebec where our first main stop was Ottawa. In that city we saw the changing of the guard at Parliament hill. Then we visited the Parliament building where the Senate and House of Commons are located. Later that day we visited Montreal and drove on to Quebec where we stayed that night.

Impressed With Quebec Of all the cities we visited, I liked Quebec the best. Most of the people there speak French and the French influence is very obvious in dress and food. We were taken on a tour of the city which was very interesting. After leaving Canada we traveled through Vermont into New York state. On Sunday, July 17, we visited Hyde Park, President Roosevelt's home, and the Vanderbilt mansion. We attended church services at St. James Episcopal church where we were privileged to see and talk to Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

That evening we arrived at our destination—New York City. We were met by delegates from Kansas, Nebraska, New York and (Continued on Page 12)

Miss Lena Kalaya, Exchange Student Gives Views on U.S. Foods, Customs

Latest addition to the Grant Rinehart family, residing at 207 North Fourth street, is Miss Lena Kalaya, exchange student from Greece who arrived in Nyssa Aug. 9.

Lena is 17 years old, is 1.58 meters tall and weighs 49 kilograms (translation: 5 feet, 3 inches; 108 pounds). She will be a senior student at Nyssa high school when the doors open Sept. 6.

Adrian Schools Open Tuesday; Faculty Named

According to information received from Supt. Glenn E. Ward, Adrian public schools will open Tuesday, Sept. 6. Buses will run that morning, returning children home at noon. Regular classes will start Sept. 7.

Plans Career as Lawyer

After high school Lena plans to study law at the University of Athens, preparing for a career as lawyer, the profession of her father.

Miss Kalaya left her home in Greece Aug. 4 and arrived in New York City the evening of Aug. 5. After spending three days in that city she arrived at Boise on the evening of Aug. 9 and was met at the airport by the Rinehart family.

Lena has not been in this country long enough to form any definite opinions but some of her first impressions are that America is a lovely country, the people are very kind and helpful, especially her American family, the Rineharts. She says, "I love them and I feel like at my home."

Likes American Food

She states that many things are very different and many times she has to ask her family what something means. She says that the food here is very different, but that she likes American food. "I have never eaten corn on the cob at a dinner," she said. In her native country, corn on the (Continued on Page 12)

Registration and Fees Set

Registration for high school students will be conducted between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 3. Total fees, excluding insurance and work-books, will be $20 for boys and $17 for girls, the difference being an equipment fee for physical education.

Insurance required of all boys participating in athletics will be $12 for those taking football and $6 for boys who participate in sports other than football. Other students may take out insurance for $2 for the year.

High School Faculty Named

High school faculty includes Glenn E. Ward, superintendent and principal; LeRoy Buhler, science and coach; Sam Tyson, social studies and coach; Jim Harper, mathematics; Joe Witty, agriculture; Wally Krause, music; Mrs. Arlene Krause, commercial; Mrs. Marie Moore, home ec; Mrs. Agnes Dilley, language arts; and Miss Donna Black, physical education.

Two Nyssa Families Change Locations

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon F. Ray have recently purchased their former home at 313 Bower from Paul Wynn. The Rays built the home approximately 12 years ago and later sold the property, moving to Boise. They moved back to Nyssa last week and will be associated with Ray's Food Fair stores in Nyssa and Ontario.

The Wynns have moved to route 1, Nyssa.

Thompson Signs Baseball Pact With Boise Braves

Donning the baseball uniform of the Boise Braves for the first time Tuesday night, Stan Thompson pitched 4-hit ball to win the second game of a double header, 9-1.

Thompson struck out eight batters and walked three in recording his win in the Pioneer league. He appeared headed for a shut-out until the seventh inning when an error by the shortstop allowed the single run to score.

Earlier in the season, Thompson was with Wenatchee, Wash., of the class B Northwest league, but since his release he has been working in the insurance office of his father, Bob Thompson, in Nyssa.

He has signed to play the rest of the season with Boise and will commute from Nyssa for the home games. Upon commenting on trying to get back in shape, he said, "It's a rough go, getting bones and muscles loosened up after they've had two months of sitting."

Alarming Crime Rise Seen in U.S.

According to the Aug. 29 issue of U.S. News and World Report, crime in the U.S. is still on the increase. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover reported a "startling" 9 percent spurt in the number of serious crimes committed during the first half of 1960, compared with the same period for 1959.

Increases were reported from all parts of the country and in all types of crimes.

Hoover's report listed increases of 13 percent in the number of robberies, 12 percent in burglaries, 8 percent in larceny cases involving $50 or more, 6 percent in murders, 5 percent in forcible rape, 5 percent in auto theft, and 4 percent in aggravated assault.

Elementary Principal Clarice Poor Gives School Information for Parents

Many parents have requested that a list of school supplies, needed at each grade level, be published so that these items may be purchased at their convenience before school convenes on Sept. 6. Elementary Principal Clarice Poor said this week.

All boys and girls need tennis shoes for physical education classes held in the gym, according to Mrs. Poor. The child's name should be printed on each shoe for easy identification.

Zipper-type notebooks are not recommended for elementary school students. Regulation pens will be available at school. Pupils are asked not to bring ballpoint or fountain pens.

Supplies Needed

Grade 1—All school supplies will be furnished, except gym shoes, being paid for by the $1.50 registration fee.

Grade 2—Two No. 2 pencils, wide-lined pencil tablet, pink pearl eraser, box of crayons (16 colors), 12-inch ruler.

Grade 3—Two No. 2 pencils, pink pearl eraser, box of crayons (16 colors), 12-inch ruler, wide-lined spiral notebook and wide-lined spiral notebook.

Cafeteria Information Listed

Lunches will be served in the school cafeteria beginning Wednesday, Sept. 7. The charge for elementary pupils will be $1 per five-day week per child. Milk will be available at the cafeteria to supplement lunches that first and second grade children bring from home for 15 cents per week.

Afternoon milk will be served (Continued on Page 6)

Local Firemen Busy As Fires Plague Area

Fires in and near Nyssa during the past 10 days have caused extensive damage, according to the local volunteer department.

On Aug. 14, firemen were called to the John Gonzales residence on East Bower. The fire was burning out of control when volunteers arrived. The house was badly damaged and furniture was a total loss. Cause of the blaze is unknown.

On Aug. 17, the department answered an alarm which took them to the Doyle Denny residence on Idaho street where flames badly burned the west end of the house. The structure was severely damaged but not destroyed and much of the furniture was saved.

The blaze apparently started in the kitchen, firemen said. No one was at home at the time and the alarm was turned in by a neighbor.

Sunday evening firemen were summoned to the Treasure Valley Packing company on Alberta avenue, where a fire was burning out of control in a stack of alfalfa chaff. Firefighters were hampered by high winds which kept the fire blazing and also endangered other buildings in the area by flying sparks.

Loss from the blaze included 30 tons of alfalfa chaff and 165 feet of corral fencing, according to Jake Fischer, owner of the business which is presently under lease to Don Parker.

Nyssa Produce Shipments Listed

Tom Jones, local Union Pacific freight agent, announced Wednesday that to date Nyssa had shipped 441 cars of potatoes through Tuesday, with approximately 30 slated to go out Wednesday. This is still far below totals of last year when 1155 had been sent out by Aug. 23.

Other shipments from Nyssa, to date, show 14 cars of onions, compared with one car last year at this time; 109 cars of wheat, as compared with 111 last year.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture report, No. 22, dated Aug. 23 from Caldwell, showed a total of 661 cars of potatoes shipped from the county through Tuesday, or a total of 220 from Vale and Ontario combined.

This report showed harvesting light due to the weather and a lack of maturity. Market for Early Gems was weaker with too few sales to quote a price on that day.

Composes Trip Account

MISS MARILYN PRATT writes an account of her recent trip to the United Nations for the Gate City Journal. Marilyn was winner of a local contest sponsored by the Nyssa Odd Fellows lodge on an essay concerning some phase of the United Nations. She went on to win a regional contest held at Baker in March. As regional winner she was awarded an all-expense trip to the assembly of United Nations in New York City. In the bowl on the table is a wooden salad set comprised of knife, fork and spoon which Marilyn purchased at the gift shop in the United Nations building. The gift, presented to her mother, Mrs. Orville Maze, comes from Kenya, Africa. The shop contains articles for sale from nations all over the world. —Staff Photo.
