

Class of 1948 Nyssa High Graduates Gather Here Saturday for Reunion

Thirty members of Nyssa high school graduating class of 1948 attended a reunion Saturday. A picnic was held at the school grounds at noon with 82 classmates and their families in attendance.

A banquet and social hour were held in the cafeteria at 7 p.m. Invocation was given by Farrell Peterson and Duane Holcomb presided as master of ceremonies. He introduced and welcomed special guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Lee Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Walter McPartland, Miss Margery Nihart, Mrs. Ada Haworth, Mr. and Mrs. Don Engstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brumbach and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steffens. Holcomb also extended a welcome to class members and their mates.

Class prophecy was read by Florence Niccum Bancroft and class roll was called by Tommy Bates. Each member in attendance answered by giving a personal history for the past 12 years. Special music was provided by Margery Bishop Peterson and Mary Lou Schenk Peterson.

Special prizes were awarded to Don Share and Farrell Peterson who tied for having the largest family of five children; Helen Mundy Foss, who came from Seattle, for the greatest distance traveled; Helen Warren Willis, for being married the longest time; Mardi Sallee Larsen, for being married the shortest time; and Robert Florea, for having the least hair.

Arrangements for this year's reunion were made by Florence Niccum Bancroft. Food was prepared and served by the LDS ladies.

Plans were made for another reunion to be held in 1968. As there were 30 in attendance at this reunion from a class of 52, members are hoping for a better turnout at the next get-together.

Auxiliary Members Formulate Plans For Coming Events

Eagles auxiliary met Tuesday evening at the Eagles hall with 20 members in attendance. Elizabeth Peutz, social chairman, reported that plans for the district 4 meeting are progressing and committees are being chosen. Cooperation for this occasion will be greatly appreciated, Mrs. Peutz said.

Each member is asked to furnish a pie for the evening dinner to be served from 4 to 6 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 11. Members were reminded that the next meeting to be held Sept. 6 will be the "back to school" costume party. A letter was read from the Boise Art show inviting Carlos Parra to exhibit his pictures. Mrs. E. H. Brandt will be in charge of taking the pictures to the show which is scheduled for Sept. 10 and 11.

Stella Morris received the door prize and Angie Cook missed getting the jackpot prize as she was not present.

Eris Bertram and Margaret Sage served refreshments and State Madam President Barbara Jaques entertained by showing colored slides of her trip to Miami Beach, Fla., to Eagles national convention which she attended the first of this month.

Preparations for the auxiliary to serve dinner for the peace officers Thursday evening have been completed and plans are being made for a woman's bowling league this fall. Any member wishing to bowl may contact Eris Bertram, Marge Brewer or Bernice Cleaver as soon as possible.

Committees for the meeting to be held Sept. 6 are Florine Toombs, door prize; Lorene Beckstead and Evelyn Kelley, refreshments; and Stella Swager and Mable Fangen, entertainment.

SAUNDERS CHILDREN SPEND WEEK WITH GRANDPARENTS

Steven, Brent and Cory Saunders of Boise have been staying with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Elwood Flinders and Gail the past week. Their parents flew to Chicago by jet to attend a convention of the Regal Cookware company at Milwaukee.

Enroute home they plan to visit friends in Denver. Mrs. Saunders is the former Cleo Flinders.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sutherland and Lori of Council, Idaho, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Holcomb. The Sutherlands were here to attend the 1948 reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Riggs and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Manning and baby of Apple Valley spent a recent weekend in Pocatello, Idaho, visiting and attending a family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Vibert Kessler of Salt Lake City were Saturday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Bybee.
