

Jacquolyn Claude Named Gonzaga Honor Student

Miss Jacquolyn Claude

Miss Jacquolyn Claude, daughter of Ameil Claude of Ontario, has maintained a perfect grade point average of 3.0 at Gonzaga university in Spokane, Wash., for the summer session, according to school authorities.

This scholastic standing placed her on the institution's honor roll. She carried nine hours' credit which is considered a heavy load by the university and requires special permission to do so. Miss Claude has been a student at Gonzaga for the past two years.

Wimsatt Home Scene Of Area Homemakers Aug. Installation Tea

Forty-five Malheur county homemakers were installed Aug. 16 in their respective offices for the Home Economics Extension program by Mrs. Duane Bailey before an audience of 30 unit members and friends, according to an announcement made by Mrs. Edna Mae Wimsatt.

Each officer was presented two sprays of gladioli as a token of confidence in beginning the term of office.

Flowers were donated by the Sumida bulb farm. Mrs. Del Ricks, chairman of the Nite Owls, made the contacts for gladioli. Mrs. Glen Rogers, Ontario unit chairman, and Mrs. Merlin Hamilton, Nite Owls secretary, made a corsage for Mrs. Wimsatt and sprays for county committee and unit officers.

Mrs. Sina Conner, Ontario, made arrangements for the installation table, tea table and one for indoors.

Tri-Valley unit furnished punch and the punch bowl with Mrs. Frank Holub presiding. HOA unit furnished cups and Mrs. Mable Richmond served the coffee. Ontario Heights unit furnished paper plates Mrs. Bailey, napkins and some cookies; but the Big Bend unit assumed responsibility for furnishing cookies.

Mrs. Bailey, past chairman, in her congratulatory message emphasized the need for safety in each community, on the highway and at home. She indicated the first place to prevent accidents is in individual homes.

The installation tea affords each officer an opportunity to become better acquainted with county committee members and other area women, Mrs. Wimsatt said.
