

Stan's Stand From the Stands . . .

By STAN THOMPSON

"Coach Morford will be back in a minute." "Thanks," I said, disappointed because I was in a hurry to see him. I needed some football dope for the paper this week. I looked around his office and spied familiar faces in some of the older team pictures here and there on the wall.

There was Jim Skeen. Gosh, I used to get a big kick out of watching him being chased by all those great big guys. He'd lead them around like a bunch of dogs chasing a rabbit. And he was just as hard to catch.

There was a big smile on Dave Savage's face, standing beside Terp Lovejoy. And Dick Pounds, Delwin Holcomb and Dick Wilson were sporting some football gear from past seasons. Peering out from behind some dust was Bob Wilder. I can remember when I kept track of yards gained for John Simianer, Rodney Holcomb, Bill Lovejoy and John Lienkaemper. Gerald Talbot, Larry Schenk, Gerry Lesberg, John Messick and Don Walker have all sparked under the lights on some of those cold nights.

Cold Nights Anticipated

I got a few goose bumps on my arms as I thought of the cold nights at the football games coming up. The steam from your mouth will sometimes hang solid in front of your face and you have to move. I've been by the bleachers the next morning and have seen clumps of somebody's frozen breath still floating above the hard wooden planks. But, as any football fan will tell you, "It's all part of the game."

Hello, Thompson, those pictures bring back memories?"

Coach gave me a start. "How about some football dope?" I asked, and brought out some paper.

I began scribbling down parts of sentences as Coach Bob Morford began talking.

I learned there are about 11 returning lettermen, but only three were starters last year. So with a game pressing this Friday night here against Vale, the short time for practices has been a problem. As any of the boys can tell you, the practices have been hard and rugged. But the team is beginning to jell.

Reserves Not Very Strong

"We have eight good prospects, and not too strong a bench." "Not too strong a bench?" I queried. "Heck, get some carpenter to get some braces on it right away."

I got a dirty look and was informed that he meant the team was not strong with substitutions. Oh well.

Morford maps out plays on paper and gives copies to the boys for memorization. He says to take the paper home and digest it well. And would you believe it, a boy did and missed two practices from indigestion. And even today he coughs up bits of mimeographed paper.

The field is in good shape. All of the games will be under the lights and are to be played Friday evenings.

Program Receives Cooperation

Coach Morford added that the school board and personnel cooperate wholeheartedly with the athletic program at school.

I was impressed by the good condition of the uniforms and equipment. The locker room was neat.

Coaches Harry McGinley and Mel Calhoun passed by. The boys have the highest respect for their coaches. This makes for good relationships and for a good team.

I'll bet most of the boys don't realize they are wearing about $90 worth of football gear when they prance out on the field.

I am sure I speak for all of you football fans when I wish the Nyssa high school Bulldogs a successful football season.

Consignment Horse Sale Slated Sunday At Nyssa Sale Yard

The biggest fall horse sale ever to be held in Nyssa will be conducted Sunday, Sept. 11, by Col. Guy Sparks and Col. Bert Anderson. The open consignment sale will be held at Nyssa Sale Yard, located one mile north of Nyssa on Third street and will start at 11 a.m.

Over 150 head of quarter horses, thoroughbreds, shetlands, kid's ponies, saddle horses, work horses and mules will be sold. Riding equipment selling will consist of saddles, bridles, tack and pack equipment.

Henry Esplin has sold his cattle ranch at Harper and has consigned his entire herd of 50 head of horses to this sale which includes good using horses, brood mares and colts. These animals represent 15 years of breeding on his ranch.

Riding equipment will be sold first. Horses will be sold in order of consignment. Sparks said terms will be cash. There will be a 5 percent commission on horses, $3 no sale charge and 10 percent commission on riding equipment.

Consignments are welcome, the sponsors said. Lunch will be served in the sale yard restaurant.

For further information those interested may contact sales managers, Col. Bert Anderson, Ontario, or Col. Guy Sparks, Nyssa.

Caldwell Station KCID Will Broadcast Area Football Games

Caldwell radio station KCID will again carry complete reports of Nyssa and Adrian high school football games, along with those of SRV-A, SRV-B, SIC and Pacific Northwest conference games.

The reports will be broadcast at halftime periods and at the end of the games. Reporters will be chosen from school student bodies to give the reports by telephone over the air. They will begin at 7:45 p.m.

The Nyssa Gate City Journal expects to carry Nyssa and Adrian contests in more detail than will be broadcast.

Games for this Friday night, Sept. 9, include Marsing at Middleton, Notus at New Plymouth, Homedale at Parma, Vale at Nyssa, Wilder (bye), Adrian at Fruitland, Weiser at Caldwell, Emmett (bye), Payette (bye) and Ontario at Meridian.

Grouse Season Opens Saturday

Shotgun devotees are reminded that the season on blue and ruffed grouse will open this Saturday, Sept. 10. The season is scheduled to extend for nine days through Sept. 18. Bag limit is set at three blue and ruffed grouse in the aggregate per day, six birds in possession.

West side gunners should find fair to good hunting along the Nehalem river breaks, Birkenfeld area, ridge tops back of Bellevue and Willamina, along the Luckiamute out of Kings Valley, and in the Blodgett to Bellfountain area in the Mary's Peak country.

The Siuslaw should also provide some blue and ruffed grouse gunning.

The game birds will also be found along the ridge tops and brushy breaks on both sides of the Cascade mountains with probably the better shooting in the
