Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Patterson

Miss Jean Rae Chrisman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Chrisman, Sr., of 310 Wheeler street, Lebanon, Ore., became the bride of Lawrence Lee Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Patterson of 509 North Third street, Nyssa, Aug. 20 at the First Methodist church in Lebanon.

The Rev. Herschel Hall officiated at the double ring rites amid a setting of candles and baskets of pink and white gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace sheath dress with three-quarter sleeves and white accessories. Her bouquet was of pink roses and white carnations.

Mrs. Ruth Melies, who served as matron of honor for her sister, wore a sheath dress of pink embroidered fabric with pink accessories. Her bouquet was also of roses and carnations.

Kenneth Toomb of Nyssa served as best man and ushers, who also lighted the tapers, were Dick Gustavson of Portland and the bridegroom's cousin, Donald Patterson of Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Merle Limbeck of Scio, cousin of the bride, sang "Because," "Oh, Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Kirkelie at the organ.

Mrs. Chrisman chose for her daughter's wedding a brown lace dress with white accessories and the groom's mother wore a brown ensemble with matching accessories. Both ladies wore corsages of white orchids.

A reception was held for the couple in the church parlor following the ceremony. The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Otto Limbeck of Scio and Mrs. Lyman Dyer of Vancouver, Wash., both aunts of the bride. Mrs. Kenneth Toomb of Nyssa also assisted.

Mrs. Ross Chrisman, Jr., of Salem and Mrs. Fred Craver of Sisters poured. Miss Carol Chrisman of Scio, cousin of the bride, was in charge of gifts and Mrs. Barry B. Hall of Seattle registered the guests.

The new Mrs. Patterson is a graduate of Lebanon high school and attended Oregon College of

Funeral Services To Be Held Today For Earl Strickland

Funeral rites for Earl Harry Strickland will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Lienkaemper chapel. The Rev. Earl L. Hastings will officiate and special music will be under the direction of Mrs. Elvin Ballou.

Mr. Strickland succumbed Tuesday evening, Sept. 6, 1960, at Malheur Memorial hospital following a lingering illness.

He was born Dec. 28, 1885, at Cross Timbers, Mo., a son of John D. and Charity McCubbin Strickland. He was married in 1911 to Oral Roschi at Neosho, Mo. They moved with their family to the Sunset Valley community in 1935 from Joplin, Mo. Mrs. Strickland succumbed in 1954.

Mr. Strickland was an elder in the Christian church of Nyssa and had been one of its most ardent workers. He owned his farm in Sunset Valley, was very fond of farming and enjoyed building up the land and growing good crops.

He is survived by four sons, John, Don, Ray and Glen, all of rural Nyssa; two sisters, Margaret, Steele of Collinsville, Okla., and Ida Whetstone of Sanger, Calif.

Also surviving are 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Services will be under the direction of Lienkaemper funeral home and burial will be made in the Owyhee cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Gann visited the past weekend with their daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Norland at Umatilla. Gann and Norland attended the National Football league exhibition game Sunday at Pendleton.

Education. The bridegroom is a graduate of Nyssa high school and Oregon Technical institute.

For her travel costume the bride wore a blue tweed suit with blue and white accessories. She wore a pink rosebud corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The newlyweds will be at home at 1240 Division street in Oregon City where Patterson is employed at Western Wood Manufacturers and Mrs. Patterson will teach in the city's school system.
