

Auxiliary Members Elect New Officers, Make Bowling Plans

Approximately 30 lady Eagles met Thursday evening at Eagles hall for the purpose of organizing a bowling league. Members include wives of Eagles and auxiliary members.

Election of officers was held with Charlotte Allen being chosen president; Deana Kohl, vice president; Claudine Garrison, secretary; Elaine Olsen, treasurer; Betty Bowen, sergeant-at-arms; and Edna Mills, publicity chairman.

Temporary team captains were named but each team will elect its own permanent captain and select a team name. Rules for the league were discussed and members are asked to meet at Eagles hall at 8 p.m. Sept. 29 to discuss plans before they go for their first game at 9 o'clock that evening to Bye Lanes in Ontario.

All bowling contenders are urged to attend this meeting and to help make the league a success.

Miss Sharon Marie Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fox of route 1, Nyssa, became the bride of John L. Thiel, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiel, also of route 1, Nyssa, in an 11 o'clock morning ceremony Sept. 17, 1960.

The single ring ceremony at St. Bridget's Catholic church, was performed by Father John Baumgartner in the presence of 100 invited guests.

Amid a setting of baskets of orchid gladioli, arranged by Mrs. Gerrit Stam, the solo voice of Mrs. Raymond Holly was heard, accompanied by Mrs. Dick Weymouth.

Miss Fox, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess styled white satin gown featuring long sleeves tapering to a point at the wrist. The gown was made by her mother. Her fingertip veil of nylon net was held by a small scalloped jeweled hat. She carried a purple centered orchid encircled with feathered carnations on a white prayer book.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Robert Skinner, twin sister of the bridegroom. She wore a sheath dress of orchid lace and carried an orchid gladioli bouquet.

Gregory Thiel served his brother as best man and ushers were Don Dority and Jerry Douglas of Culver, Ore., cousin of the bride.

A reception held in the Catholic parish hall immediately following the ceremony, Mrs. F. T. Douglas, the bride's aunt, and Mrs. Frank Holub were in charge of serving the cake. Pouring punch was Mrs. Velma Miller, also an aunt of the bride. Mrs. Roy Hirai was in charge of serving coffee, Beverly Wilkening of Milton-Freewater presided at the guest book and placing the gifts were Mrs. Jim Chamberlain and Miss Margaret Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Thiel are both graduates of Adrian high school. They will make their home on a farm near Adrian where the bridegroom is employed at Eder Hardware company.
