

Auxiliary Members Discuss Membership, Plan Halloween Party

Eagles auxiliary met Tuesday evening at the Eagles hall with officers holding a special session preceding the regular business meeting. Eleven members attended the brief meeting. Dorothy Mitchell missed the jackpot prize and Mabel Fangen won the door prize.

Bertha Taylor gave a membership report and plans for membership drive were made with Jimmie Ann Hatch and Stella Swager as team captains. It was voted to pay two years dues to any member or members bringing in 10 new members and one year's dues to those bringing in five new members within the next six months.

The group also voted, since there is now enough money in the Carlos Parra art education trust and savings fund, to set up a special bank account with Virginia Brandt as co-signer.

Following the meeting, Norma Asumendi and Betty Talbot served refreshments.

Next session will be held Oct. 18 at 8 o'clock. This will be the annual Halloween costume party and members will also initiate Elizabeth Newman and Charlotte Allen. Members and candidates will come in Halloween dress and prizes will be given for best costumes. Judging will take place prior to the meeting.

Ether Reitenbaugh will furnish the door prize. Barbara Jaques and Lillian Lundy are in charge of refreshments and Ione Storm and Mae Tracy, entertainment.

Effie Rose Smith and Ralph M. Shy United in Idaho Falls Temple Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Shy

Miss Effie Rose Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith of route 1, Nyssa, and Ralph M. Shy, son of Harold Shy of route 1, Nyssa, were united in marriage on the morning of Sept. 8, 1960, in the Idaho Falls LDS temple.

A reception honoring the couple was held immediately following the ceremony with approximately 200 invited guests attending.

The bride chose for her wedding a floor length gown of white lace over taffeta, featuring round neckline with small scalloped collar and long tapering sleeves. Her shoulder length veil was held by a jeweled tiara and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and red roses.

Miss Betty Sullivan, maid of honor, and flower girl Larue Smith, the bride's sister, wore identical street length dresses of red brocade taffeta.

John Elam of Milton-Freewater, Ore., served as best man.

Vocal solos were rendered by Jay Gibson, singing "I Love You Truly," and Nadine Garner presenting "Because." Ann, Julie, Fay and Caroline Christensen sang "Temple by the River."

The new Mrs. Shy is a graduate of Adrian high school and Nampa business college. The bridegroom was graduated from North Cache high in Smithfield, Utah, and filled a 2½-year mission for the LDS church in New Zealand.

Mrs. Shy is presently employed at Dairymen's Co-op Creamery in Caldwell and her husband is with Combined Insurance company in Boise.

Following a wedding trip to Banff national park and Lake Louise, Canada, the newlyweds are at home in Caldwell.

Among out-of-town guests were George Halls of San Antonio, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Mariager of El Monte, Calif.; Mrs. Lorraine Davidson of Kemmerer, Wyo.; Mr. and Mrs. Clair Davidson of La Grande; John Elam of Milton-Freewater; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Christensen and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Ellis of Caldwell, Idaho.

Recent events honoring the couple included showers given by Betty Sullivan and MIA officers of the Caldwell ward LDS church.
