Knife and Fork Members Hear Psychology Topic

Members of the Knife and Fork club heard not only a discussion of values of psychology and mental sciences, but also saw some of the phenomena in this field amazingly demonstrated when they met for dinner Saturday evening, Nov. 19, at East Side cafe in Ontario.

Heading the discussion and performance was Dr. Henry Gerald, who frequently has been referred to as "The Wizard of Denmark," because of fabulous demonstrations of mental telepathy, psychology and clairvoyance that he gives.

Dr. Gerald is a long-time student of mental sciences, having studied in this field at universities in Denmark, Switzerland, France and Germany.

A practicing scientist and psychiatrist, Dr. Gerald has been in the United States for about eight years, during which time he has appeared before hundreds of audiences in most states of the nation.

Tri-Valley Members Discuss Yule Meeting With Gift Exchange

Fourteen members and one guest, Mrs. Glen Strickland, attended Tri-Valley Homemakers extension unit Friday at the home of Mrs. Frank Holub.

Eye opener was given by Mrs. Wilbur Chapin, who demonstrated how to cover a small box. She also showed a dusting cloth made from a large square of cheesecloth centered with a mitten cut from print cloth.

Lesson leaders, Mrs. Chapin and Mrs. Holub, showed kitchen drawers in which they had put lightwood partitions and one deep drawer with a sliding shelf or box over the lower part, to furnish more storage room with easy access to all. They then showed other methods of storage in keeping with the program theme, "Putting Your Kitchen in Apple Pie Order."

Mrs. Holub discussed clothing lessons to be held in the near future and gave information on man-made fabrics.

The hostess served refreshments of refrigerated pumpkin chiffon cake and lady fingers. The cake was made demonstrating a spring form cake pan.

Mrs. Strickland, Mrs. Chapin, Mrs. Delbert Garner and Mrs. M. Atagi received door prizes.

Plans were discussed for the unit's Christmas meeting and gift exchange. Gifts will be valued at 75 cents to $1. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. B. Smith on Dec. 16.

Beverly Hills Rites Unite Miss Joy Raven, W. Donell Fischer

Miss Joy Raven of Kent, England, and W. Donell Fischer, son of former Nyssan, Mrs. Ina Fischer, were united in marriage Oct. 22, 1960, at a 12 o'clock noon ceremony in Beverly Hills, Calif.

The bride, a stenographer by profession, had been employed by a TV writer for Shirley Temple and other programs. The bridegroom is in the U. S. Navy and is presently stationed at Oxnard, Calif.

Following the ceremony and a wedding dinner attended by a small circle of friends, the couple flew to San Francisco on a honeymoon trip.

The Fischers formerly lived on the Gerrit Stam farm. Mr. Fischer succumbed eight years ago.

Daughters of Pioneers Meet at Mitchell Home

Miss Cheryl Wilson Feted on Anniversary

Miss Cheryl Wilson was honored Sunday on her 11th birthday anniversary with a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Wilson.

Traditional decorations were used and the birthday cake was centered with a miniature doll. The frosted cake formed her bouffant skirt.

Attending the event were Jerri Ableman, Krista Skow, Cathy Burres, Trudy Olsen, Patsy Norris, Christine Burningham, Stephanie Wilson and Sandra Smith of Ontario.

The girls played games, after which refreshments were served.

Nyssa Couple Hosts Middle East Visitors

The Messrs. Judeh Araj, Abdelrahim Amad and Kamil Samara of Trans-Jordan and Mohamed L. Nass of Tripoli, Libya, were dinner guests in the J. W. Rigney home Thursday evening, Nov. 17. The guest list also included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parr of Nyssa.

On Sunday afternoon the Rigneys were hosts at a coffee hour for the group from the Middle East and the following local guests were present: Messrs. and Mmes. E. A. Liming, Elvin Ballou, Earl Hastings, Rollo Kent, George Sallee and Ray Holly of Nyssa. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. March of Boise were also present.

Interesting points of the shared discussion emphasized the many ways in which these distant friends lead lives very similar to ours. Modern dress, desire for progress, appreciation of good literature and music, recognition of educational values and a real need for further exchange of ideas were brought out.

The following factors were especially emphasized:

1. The English language is a basic requirement in all elementary schools of the Middle East.
2. Opportunities for other foreign languages are provided throughout the grade schools beginning at the second grade level.
3. The people of the Middle East know much more about the American way of life than Americans know about theirs.
4. Communism can never win out in the Middle East because the people are firmly dedicated to their faith in God.
