

4-H Clubs Organize; Local Leaders Named

As this is the beginning of the 4-H club year, enrollments have been coming into the county office quite rapidly during the last several weeks, according to a news release received from E. M. Hauser, county extension agent.

Enrollments for over 30 clubs with a membership of some 375 have been received. These consist of five 4-H health clubs, 11 clothing clubs, 10 food clubs, three livestock, two knitting and one each of homemaking and crafts.

Four of the health clubs are in the Nyssa schools with Mrs. Hazel Lane, Mrs. Nina Baxter, Mrs. Nelda Schenk and Miss Helen Obendorf as leaders.

At Cairo, clothing club leaders are Mrs. Lois Hoffman, Mrs. Ruth Robbins and Mrs. Clarice Ross.

In cooking, Mrs. Ross will lead the Cairo group and Mrs. Jane Ballou, the Nyssa cooking club. Mrs. Nancy Goodell and Mrs. Bernice Cleaver are leaders of the Buena Vista knitting club.

Quite a number of additional home economics groups have started work and are in the process of organizing clubs, Hauser said.

Employ thy time well if thou meanest to gain leisure.
