

Emblem Group to Buy Therapy Treatment Station Wagon

Oregon State Emblem association convened Saturday morning in Ontario with approximately 100 members in attendance.

The group voted to purchase a new station wagon for the Oregon State Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., therapy work.

Inez Wilson, junior past president, was chairman of the luncheon with Mrs. Charles Kravetz, dining room chairman. A fashion show was held featuring five modern and five old fashions. Clint Bellows presented three vocal numbers. Mrs. Bert Anderson presided as toastmistress.

Instruction panels for club presidents, vice presidents, press correspondents, historians and parliamentarians composed the afternoon session. Kay Toedtmeier, Ontario president, and Jo Knight, Hermiston press correspondent, were appointed to present an amended set of by-laws for consideration at the next meeting.

John Fowler, leading Knight, welcomed the visitors in behalf of the local Elks lodge at the 6 o'clock banquet held at Coffey's Country club. Mrs. Lamont Fife presided as toastmistress at the banquet and pheasant earrings were given as favors.

Mrs. Cebern Davis of Seaside, state president, presided at the business meeting which adjourned at 9 p.m. Entertainment followed featuring 16 sixth and seventh grade students from Nyssa grade school, appropriately clad for square and round dances. They were under the direction of Mrs. Neil Petterson whose daughter, Patty, performed in a solo tap dance. A donkey skit was performed by Mrs. Duke Daws and Mrs. David Brizendine and narrated by Mrs. Petterson.

Mrs. Toedtmeier received an officer's sash from the Lakeview club in appreciation of the Ontario club's help in organizing the Lakeview club and continued guidance.

Mrs. Jay Bybee was chairman for the day with Mrs. Wallace Orth as co-chairman.

Janet Joyce Olson and Del Roy Clegg Wed Oct. 5 in Salt Lake Temple Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Del Roy Clegg

Miss Janet Joyce Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Olson of Nyssa, and Del Roy Clegg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clegg of Lehi, Utah, were united in marriage Oct. 5, 1960, in the Salt Lake LDS temple. Elder W. Aird MacDonald performed the double ring ceremony.

A reception was held Oct. 7 in Lehi at the Lehi Seventh ward chapel honoring the couple. Best man was Daryl Wilcox of Provo and matron of honor was Mrs. Wanda Olson of Salt Lake City, sister-in-law of the bride. They were further feted at a reception in the Nyssa First ward chapel Monday, Oct. 10.

The bride chose a gown of white chantilly lace over taffeta, featuring high neckline and long sleeves. The bouffant skirt fell floor-length. Her finger-tip veil of imported French silk illusion was released from a crown tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of red roses and stephanotis accented by white carnations.

Ushers were Donald Crisp and Gerald Wilson.

For her daughter's reception, Mrs. Olson wore a sheath dress of gold lame with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in an embossed ensemble of blue taffeta. Both mothers wore matching corsages of talisman roses and gold leaves.

A three-tier wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom and decorated with white bells, graced the reception serving table. Assisting with refreshments were Mrs. Louise Skow, Mrs. Roberta Crisp and Mrs. Goldie Hansen. Miss Mary Bair was in charge of the guest book and gifts were accepted by the Bill Miller twins, Rodney and Roger, with their older brother, Randy, assisting. The gifts were placed for display by Mrs. Wilma Roth, Miss Judy and Laura Moncur and Mrs. Mark Moncur.

Marvin Jefferies served as master of ceremonies. Mrs. Ione Flinders gave a reading and Mrs. Janet Focht sang "Because," followed by a trumpet solo by Jim Jamieson. Miss Christine Burningham sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told." The music rendered for the evening was played on the electric organ by Mrs. Grant Jones.

The new Mrs. Clegg was graduated from Nyssa high school and attended two years at Brigham Young university in Provo, where she majored in speech and hearing therapy. She plans to continue her major at the University of Utah next fall. The bridegroom is a graduate of Huntington high school and has served two years in the service. He is employed at Utah Sand and Gravel in Salt Lake City.

The young couple is at home at 167 North West Temple, Salt Lake City. Among out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Richards and Mrs. Glenn O. Poole, Nampa; Mrs. George Wilson, Caldwell; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Ellibe, Parma; Mrs. Don Rekow, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Koskey and John Koskey of Emmett.

Mrs. Brandt Entertains Samba Club Members Mrs. E. H. Brandt entertained members of the Samba club Friday afternoon with two tables in play. Guest players were Mrs. Harry Miner and Mrs. Clifford Beckstead. Prizes were won by Mrs. Beckstead and Mrs. Fred Guthrie.
