Hunters Return With Bull, Cow And Calf Moose

By Edna Mills

OWYHEE — Don Brewer and Chet Mills returned Thursday evening from a moose hunting trip. The hunting party included Gordon Dobin, president of Tri-State Tractor company; Norman (Swede) Ralston; Jack Cory, pilot for Tri-State Tractor; and Norman Ralston, Jr. They left Hillsboro last Saturday in Swede Ralston's Aero Commander 680 and flew the 500 miles in a little over two hours, with a stop at Vancouver, B.C., for in-and-out customs clearance.

There was a moose in the traffic pattern as they circled to land at the 3000-foot landing strip and they had seen a number of others on the way to Charlotte Lake, B.C.

In a few hours Sunday the party had bagged a bull, a cow and a young moose. Monday Ralston loaded 1100 pounds of moose meat aboard his plane along with his son and Jack Cory and returned to Portland. Both pilots returned to Charlotte Lake by planes Tuesday afternoon and on Wednesday they brought out the other moose and the rest of the hunting party.
